IN accord with the spirit of the times, this eighteenth Volume of the Y ACKETY YACK is presented to you in a much simpler form than its immediate predecessors. We make no apologies. Wherever possible we have attempted to conserce by eliminating those things which were not absolutely necessary: but withal we have attempted to give a complete record of our college year. We sincerely hope that you will find it such.

DEDICATION

As an appreciation of their action, and of the glory that they have brought to their alma mater, we dedicate this, the Eighteenth Volume of the YACKETY YACK, to the Alumni and Students of the University who have entered the service of their country.

THE SPIRIT OF '61
AND
THE SPIRIT OF '17

THE UNIVERSITY AND THE WAR

LEO TOLSTOY somewhere speaks of what he calls the "female boarding school or cadet-academy" conception of a university. The university of his time, he thinks, is aloof from real life; in it boys learn "lessons," as in the schools; attending it is "going to school." A better conception is that of "a collection of men for the purpose of their mutual culture;" and he explains what this means by telling us that "such universities, unknown to us, spring up and exist in various corners of Russia; in the universities themselves, in the students' clubs, people come together, read and discuss, until at last rules establish themselves when to meet and how to discuss. There you have real universities!" A different idea is expressed by Matthew Arnold, in the description of Oxford that everyone knows by heart: "Beautiful City! so venerable, so lovely, so unravaged by the fierce intellectual life of our century . . . steeped in sentiment as she lies, and whispering from her towers the last enchantments of the Middle Age, who will deny that Oxford, by her ineffable charm, keeps ever calling us nearer to the true goal of all of us, to the ideal, to perfection, to beauty?" And a third conception, older than these, is expressed by Francis Bacon, pioneer of research as a university ideal, when, after speaking of the search for truth as "the sovereign good of human nature," he quotes Lucretius: "It is a pleasure to stand upon the shore, and see ships tossed upon the sea; a pleasure to stand in the window of a castle, and to see a battle and the adventures thereof below: but no pleasure is comparable to the standing upon the vantage ground of Truth (a hill not to be commanded, and where the air is always clear and serene), and to see the errors, and wanderings, and mists, and tempests, in the vale below." To this he adds merely that the sight of human error and suffering must be "with pity, and not with swelling or pride."

Each of these conceptions, taken singly, is partial. Tolstoy would define his university by the group of earnest men and women, connected with an institution or not, who read and discuss serious matters for mutual culture. He has in mind the Circles of Tchaikovsky, organized in the latter part of the nineteenth century in almost every province of Russia, in which university men and women lived with peasants and artisans, and sought not only to better their circumstances but to implant in them ideals of freedom, seeking also to learn from them sincerity, truth, and their own conceptions of life. But this ideal leaves out of account both that function of the university which makes it the conservator of the accumulated riches of human experience and that not less important function which is discharged by great investigators, men who give themselves unweariedly to pure research, who dwell upon that hill of Truth of which Bacon wrote. Tolstoy represents the university as partaking of the life of the people; Arnold thinks of it as the preserver of ideals, a "queen of romance," a "home of lost causes," withdrawn from the passing clamor of an epoch of dissolution and transformation. Bacon also would have it removed from the flux of human struggle and error, in order that it may further, through research, the conquest of abstract truth.

One effect of the Great War has been that it has brought all things to test. This test is not merely of physical courage and endurance, of the spirit of heroism, of the willingness to fight and, if need be, to die for that something not ourselves that is identified with justice and right; it is also a test of our conceptions of democracy, of our fitness to champion the ideals which humanity, through a long and painful evolution, has set up against arbitrary and pitiless despotism. Men and institutions are alike tried by fire. This test the university, like other institutions, can not evade. The province of the university may be defined through combining the conceptions outlined a moment ago. It must act as custodian and interpreter of the spiritual inheritance of the ages; it must follow knowledge like a sinking star beyond the utmost bounds of human thought; and it must bring these ideals and this truth to bear on life. In the light of the first of these duties, Kultur and frightfulness, the ambition for a place in the sun, the false doctrine of the survival of the strongest, are put to a test that shrivels them and burns. In the light of the second, the investigator, untouched by the tumult and the shouting of warring hosts, adds bit by bit to the sum of knowledge that pushes back a little farther the realm of chaos and old night. In the light of the third, idealism and truth come down from the mountain top to bring the tables of the law to men.

This threefold vision the University of North Carolina has caught. Her years are the years of the American constitution. Her life is a symbol of American democracy in its best and purest form. Sometimes we think her devoid of beauty; but this ground is holy ground, these buildings sanctuary. True to her spirit, her sons have given themselves freely to make this spirit prevail. In them, her warfare on falsehood becomes concrete. True to her spirit, those who remain are preparing themselves, in mind and body, for the day when they too may be called upon to front a lie in arms, and not to yield. Thus is the first vision made flesh.

As to the second, there are scholars here who in library and laboratory continue the research upon which the life of the University depends. This work is often unrealized by the student-body, but it is like the mountain springs at the head of a mighty river. Therefore, despite changes in courses of study necessary to fit them to the needs of the present, despite the military training that absorbs so much of the time and interest of members of the University, despite the picturesque changes in the appearance of classroom and campus because of the substitution of the garb of war for academic cap and gown, the scientific and philological societies present their records of research, the learned journals published by the University appear with stated regularity, scholarly investigation is quickened, not discouraged, by war. The spirit of the University seeks to find the facts and to face them, knowing, with Huxley, that "there is no alleviation for the suffering of mankind except veracity of thought and action, and the resolute facing of the world as it is." From this faithfulness to the second vision, the University derives its authority.

Finally, through the series of Extension Leaflets dealing with questions of war, through the package libraries and the information service, through correspondence courses and lectures on history, science, and literature in the light of the war; most of all through the new organizations in various communities known as Extension Centers, the University brings its idealism and its truth to bear on the troubled life of an age of transformation and agony. Wherever a group of people—in a classroom on the Hill, in a country Sunday School, in an Extension Center miles away from the Old Well—are brought into contact with this idealism and this truth, there is the University in the midst of them. The student who walks a dozen miles on Sunday to tell a little class what he has learned on the Hill, the teacher who adds to his routine work the conference at the distant Center, symbolize the third vision. For the University exists not in its physical equipment of classrooms and laboratories, not in its machinery of registration and examination, not in the splendid ceremonies of Commencement. When Brand discovered that the people regarded the building that he gave them as in truth the church, he locked the door, threw away the key, and led them up the mountainside. So also the University is a spirit—invisible, intangible, yet real. In these community groups, organized for the study of the national spirit, seeking to make of the community what the members of the community would have the nation become, the University is at work, finding here high service for a time of war, helping our democracy to create, through vision and truth, its ideals.

RAY ARMSTRONG
Belmont, N. C.

Age, 24; Height, 5 feet 9 inches
Weight, 145

Gaston County Club; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (3, 4); Greater Council (2, 3); President Di. Society; Vice-President Class (2); Class Basket-Ball (1, 2, 3), Captain (2); Varsity Basket-Ball Squad (3); Class Baseball; Assistant Manager Varsity Football (3), Manager (4); Athletic Council; Assistant Physics Laboratory (3, 4); Elisha Mitchell Scientific Society; Math. Club; International Polity Club; Golden Fleece; Amphoterotherien; ΦBK.

Sergeant Company "C"

RAY is one of the pillars of the Class. He is one of those men that you can count upon, and, conversely to the usual trend of human nature, he keeps his engagements. But RAY is more than reliable and punctual—he is alike a Math. shark, a Physics instructor, and a scholar, being another wearer of the Key. Before the war is over, we shall expect to hear of RAY's great service in the American artillery on the Western front, computing the distance from the trenches to victory.

DUMA CARROLL ARNOLD
Neuse, N. C.

Phi. Society; Medical Society; Wake County Club.

"D. C." knows all about that farm, and believes in a liberal education. He is a good student, and a hard worker. While still at University of North Carolina, he is doing his bit as a Naval Reserve.

JESSE VENON BAGGETT
Salemberg, N. C.

Age, 24; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 130

Sampson County Club; Phi. Society;
North Carolina Club; Commencement
Debate (3); Winner Intra-Collegiate Debate; Debating Council.

BAGGETT: Here's to BAGGETT, a debater and scholar, a consistent worker, and a good fellow. He is not one of the conspicuous kind, but has many friends. Unselfish, earnest, mindful of his own business, BAGGETT moves steadily forward.

WILLIAM BAILEY, JR.
Raleigh, N. C.

Age, 21; Height, 6 feet 1 inch
Weight, 158

Di. Society; German Club; President
Pan-Hellenic Council; Gorgon's Head;
Coop; Uks; BOII.

Sergeant Company "D"

BILL is tall, thin, and good-natured; he will do anything for his friends; and he has few enemies. With his half smile and a shrug of the shoulders he shoves his troubles out of the way, and seems to have succeeded very well without them. He isn't strong on the "activities stuff"; but it is the little things in the long run that have made him one of 'Eighteen's best men. When you've got the blues, and want an antidote, see BAILEY.

RALPH DEWEY BALLEW
Hickory, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 6 feet  $\frac{1}{2}$  inch
Weight, 151

German Club; Elisha Mitchell Scientific Society; Catawba-Lincoln County Club, Secretary (4); Mathematical Club; American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

Second Lieutenant Company "D"

RALPH is a steady, hard worker, a good egg, a "ladies' man," and an electrician. He is Professor Daggett's righthand man in Electric Engineering Laboratory, and he spends all his time there or in somebody's (?) parlor. With his inventive talents and excellent ability, we will be surprised if he doesn't become a Marconi or an Edison, and perfect the mechanism to sink German submarines by wireless.

ALLEN CARITHERS BANNER
Mount Airy, N. C.

Height, 5 feet 7 inches; Weight, 162

Di. Soc'ety; Surry County Club; Medical Society; ΦΧ.

TUBBY is a hard worker, is always happy and good-natured. He is a member of the Naval Reserve. We expect great things of him.

CLENON FESTUS BOYETT
Smithfield, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 6 feet; Weight, 140

Johnson County Club, Treasurer (2),
Secretary (3, 4); Class Basket-Ball
(3); Class Baseball (3).

CLENON has one of the quickest minds in the Class. Those who know him best are continually vexed because he doesn't let others know him better; for, once they do know him, they will regret not having known him earlier. He is always ready to do anyone a good turn; and it is impossible to dislike him. His ready wit, his cordial laugh, his perpetual good humor, added to his keen judgment of men and of affairs, make us all want him to succeed; and we believe he will.

VICTOR SILAS BRYANT, JR.
Durham, N. C.

Age, 19; Height, 5 feet 9 inches
Weight, 150

Di. Society; Assistant Editor "Tar-heel" (2); "YACKETY YACK" Board (3); Class Football (1, 2), Captain (3); Class Baseball (2); President of Class (2); Student Council (2, 3); Greater Council (2, 3); German Club; Commencement Marshal (3); Amphoterothern; International Polity Club; Coop; Golden Fleece; Ginghamoul; EΦΔ; ΖΨ.

First Lieutenant Company "B"

Since the first day that Vic came to Carolina, he has been known for his genuineness. Love of hard work, coupled with generous fine feeling for his fellow-classmates, have placed him high in the esteem of Faculty and students. A Class presidency, high scholarship, two years on the Student Council, active interest in athletics, are marks that show Vic to be a Carolina man.

ISRAEL HARDING BUTT
Chapel Hill, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 160

Brotherhood of St. Andrew; Gym.
Squad; Wearer of N. C.

Company "D"

LEO CARR
Teachey, N. C.

Age, 24; Height, 5 feet 11 inches
Weight, 180

President Phi. Society; President
Duplin County Club; International
Polity Club; Amphoterothern; TKA.

Company "A"

"I. H." is a French "Bull." He's a good student, who has fallen in love with Chapel Hill, and has his home here. If he works as consistently in the future as he did here, there is good in store for him.

CARR has been with our Class for only two years; and he has done in three years what the rest of us have done in four. But he has been so thoroughly one of us that it seems he has always been with us. He is a hard worker, and an able man. His unquestioned ability, his uncompromising honesty, his strength of character, mark him as a man to be counted on in time of test, and as one who stands "four square to every wind that blows."

MAUD CRAIG CARSON
Charlotte, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 5 feet 5 inches
Weight, 120

A.B., Queens College 1917.

MISS CARSON entered the University as a Senior last fall. She showed that our three-year lead was nothing, for she entered the scholarship race, and led the Class with seven "Ones." She is more than a good student. A fine sense of tact and reserve has given her that delicate charm that can only come with thought and application to this business of living. The Class presents its ideal of a woman—MAUD CRAIG CARSON.

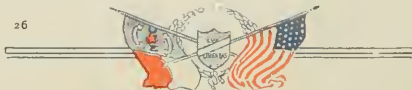

ALBERT MCKINLEY COATES
Smithfield, N. C.

Age, 21; Height, 5 feet 8 inches
Weight, 150

Y. M. C. A. Cabinet; Phi. Society; Winner Freshman Debater's Medal; Fresh-Soph Debate (2); Soph-Junior Debate (2); Junior Oratorical Contest; Winner Carr Medal; Commencement Debate; Winner Bingham Medal; Winner North Carolina Intercollegiate Peace Oratorical Contest; Secretary Phi. Society (2), Treasurer (3), Vice-President (3), President (4); President of Class (3); Johnston County Club, Secretary (2), Vice-President (3), President (4); President Athletic Association (4); Athletic Council (4); President North Carolina Club (4); Assistant Editor "University Magazine" (3); Winner W. J. Bryan Prize in Political Science (3); Greater Council (2, 3, 4); Student Council (3, 4), Secretary (3); Debating Council (3, 4), Secretary (4); Class Orator (4); International Polity Club; Amphitrothen; Golden Fleece; ΣΥ; ΤΚΑ; ΩΔ; ΕΦΔ

Company "A"

Here's to our Junior President! ALBERT has allied himself with many organizations at Carolina, and has left all better for having had him (See the North Carolina Club records). He is a champion winner of medals and prizes, and is our debater and orator "par excellence." It takes a good man to win a Peace Oratorical Contest in war time. ALBERT did it.

FREDERICK J. COHN
Goldsboro, N. C.

Age, 19; Height, 5 feet 8 inches
Weight, 145

Phi. Society; Wayne County Club;
Menorah Society; Dramatic Association;
Dramatic Club (4); German Club.

Company "A"

FRED is truly true blue. Loyal to the finish, he is endowed with a deep-seated sincerity of nature which one can't help but admire. 'Most everything comes easy to FRED; there's no such thing as an obstacle in his path, for his unusual aptitude will out. With his strong histrionic instincts, he's bound to succeed in his pet lines—Law and Love.

ELLIOTT TUNSTALL COOPER
Oxford, N. C.

Age, 21; Height, 5 feet 9 inches
Weight, 140

Phi. Society; Class Football (1, 2, 3);
Class Track (2); Latin-American Club;
Horner Club; Assistant Leader Gimghoul Dance; German Club; Commencement Ball Manager; Coop; Uks; Gimghoul; ZPsi.

Captain Company "D"

It is always fair weather when ELLIOTT'S around. Red-headed, good-natured, and possessing an inimitable laugh, he is absolutely guaranteed to drive away the worst case of blues. But combined with the bubbling disposition are more serious things—ELLIOTT also has military and athletic ability, and he has averaged the "Gentleman's Grade" in his academic work with the greatest of ease. All in all, he is a combination that is going to write Carolina's name in bold letters across the pages of international banking history.

JOHN NATHANIEL COUCH
Bassett, Va.

Trinity College 1916-17; Instructor in Botany.

HARVEY ATKINSON COX
Chapel Hill, N. C.

Age, 30; Height, 5 feet 7 inches
Weight, 156

Phi. Society; Director Brotherhood of St. Andrew; Ministerial Band.

Company "B"

COUCH is a quiet, steady worker, who, without unnecessary display, does his duty. Knowing him, one knows a genuine and sincere friend.

"H. A." has a maturity of thought and judgment not found in the typical University Senior. He is a practical thinker, and often, when bored by the superficial dilettantism of the world about him, he retires to some secluded spot to think out for himself the fundamental truths of life. His major interest is philosophy, and he has been accused of being able to see all the transitions, causes, and results of Mr. Williams' spirit as it moves thru the worlds of fact, type, and principle.

CURTIS FRANKLIN CRISSMAN
Siloam, N. C.

Age, 26; Height, 5 feet 9 inches
Weight 145

Di. Society: Y. M. C. A. Cabinet
(3, 4); Surry County Club; North Carolina Club.

RUPERT JOHNSON CROWELL
Acton, N. C.

Age, 21; Height, 5 feet 8 inches
Weight, 130

Di. Society: President Buncombe
County Club; Wearer of N. C.; Class
Baseball; German Club; I.K.K.

Lieutenant Company "A"

To look at CRIS, you would think he is lazy; but he is not. He takes life easy, and doesn't mind answering "unprepared" on Class; and yet he passes his work. Only good men can do such. Without CRIS, the "University News Letter" could not be published; and as for the Baptist Sunday School, and the ladies that attend; oh! they will certainly miss him when he leaves Chapel Hill. He is a faithful Y. M. C. A. worker, and has roomed in the Y. M. C. A. Building all his College life.

We came near losing "Buddy" at Oglethorpe; but he decided to come back up here, and do his bit in the battalion. He's one of our best lieutenants. Here we have a man of strong convictions, with the nerve to back them up. Unwavering in courage, with a chest like a washtub, in him the Boches will find a nut hard to crack.

1918 YACKETY YACK

CHARLES WALKER DAVIS
Hillsboro, N. C.

Age, 24; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 190

Captain Track Team (4); Scrub Football (1, 2); Varsity Football (3); Class Baseball (1, 2, 3); Wearer of N. C.; North Carolina Club; Athletic Council.

CHARLES is a hard worker, and one of the best-hearted men in our Class. He is always sympathetic and cheerful. If a single one of us deserve a degree, it is certainly he. Hard, honest work is not a fair name for what he has done. His aim has been good grades, self-help, and athletics; and it has been well accomplished. On leaving, the first of February, to join the Navy, he lacked only three and one-half hours of having a degree, wore an N. C. and two stars, and owed no man for his education.

ROBERT COWAN DE ROSSET
Wilmington, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 5 feet 8 inches
Weight, 125

New Hanover County Club; Latin-American Club; Horner Club; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (3, 4); Pan-Hellenic Council; Assistant Leader Sophomore Hop (2); Commencement Marshal (3); "Yackety Yack" Board (3); Editor-in-Chief "Yackety Yack"; Leader Gimghoul Dance; Commencement Ball Manager (4); German Club; Amphoterothern; Coop; Uks; Golden Fleece; Gimghoul; ST; ΣAE.

First Lieutenant Company "D"

In looking thru the pages of this book, you see the work of "Bob," our most energetic classmate. His unceasing and never-tiring labor on the "YACKETY YACK" is characteristic of him in all his College activities. Among other things which he has achieved in college might be mentioned the growth of a moustache, which, tho yet in its infancy, is quite becoming. "Bon" is also quite a dancer—judging from his movements on the ballroom floor. The esteem in which his fellow-classmen hold him is best shown by the fact that he was voted our "most popular" member. Bob's future looks like a genuine path of sunshine and roses, for he is already famous as a New York banker.

WILLIAM BANKS DEWAR
Raleigh, N. C.

Age, 21; Height, 5 feet 9 inches
Weight, 145

German Club; Wake County Club;
Assistant Leader Junior Prom. (3);
Medical Society; Drum Corps (3);
Class Baseball (3); Class Basket-Ball
(1); Track Squad (3); ΦΧ; ΦΔΘ.

BILL is one of our crack Med. students. For two years he moved among us, but then suddenly withdrew to the deep recesses of Labs, Histology, and the stiff-room, where he has maintained an almost complete seclusion. Against one approach, however, his refuge is powerless—this is the approach of dance week. Just before the night of the first hop, you can see BILL wending his way to the pressing-club with a dress suit, and you may be sure that for once the dust accumulates on the anatomy book and Histology notes up in his room. He has a likable manner, is a good dancer, and is therefore strong with the fair sex.

ELLIOTT FLORENCE DUNCAN
Mayodan, N. C.

Age, 23; Height, 5 feet 6 inches
Weight, 125

Di Society; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet
(3, 4); North Carolina Club; Vice-President Rockingham County Club
(4); Secretary Brotherhood of St. Andrew
(4); Dramatic Association;
Freshman Continuation Committee.

Company "C"

DUNCAN is one of those fellows who thinks that actions speak louder than words. He is very quiet and unassuming, but is a diligent student, who makes good. Playing a piano like a professional, and attending Y. M. C. A. Cabinet meetings just like Francis thinks one should, are some of his accomplishments. A fine boy, who will make Carolina proud of him.

1918 YACKETY YACK

WATT WEEMS EAGLE
Statesville, N. C.

Age, 19; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 145

Di. Society; Iredell County Club;
Treasurer Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (3);
Class Baseball (2); Assistant Manager
"Tarheel" (3); Business Manager
"Tarheel" (4); Elisha Mitchell Scientific Society; Dramatic Club; Assistant in Zoölogy (3); Senior Assistant in Zoölogy (4); Zoölogy Club.

Sergeant Company "A"

The next time you hear a big noise, look for WATT—he's around. The man who runs the "Tarheel," and is a near-professor of Zoölogy—the only man who sees the esthetically beautiful in a crawfish. Says he is going to be a doctor. If so, he'll be a good one; but we are afraid he'll never become one if he keeps on spending all his time talking about that girl. A fine fellow, and justly popular.

FRED ROBERT FARTHING
Boone, N. C.

Age, 22; Height, 5 feet 9½ inches
Weight, 175

Di. Society; A. W. Club; Class Football (2); Varsity Track (2), Captain
(3); Assistant Manager Varsity
Basket-Ball (2); Varsity Football (3);
German Club; Chief Commencement
Marshal (3); Medical Society; KΨ.

In the days of his youth, he was Tammany's righthand man; but later decided politics are not what they are cracked up to be. To see his legs twinkle down the track ahead of his opponent has become a thing so oft-repeated that we are proud of him as our representative. He has decided to become a sawbones. Personally, we would be afraid to let him cut our hair; but maybe he can get away with it. We are strong for FRED.

ISAAC VILAS GILES
Marion, N. C.

Age, 21; Height, 6 feet; Weight, 160

McDowell County Club; Class Stunt (1); Chemical Journal Club, Secretary (4); Associate Editor "Carolina Chemist" (2, 3); Assistant in Chemistry (3, 4); Elisha Mitchell Scientific Society.

Some day "Ike" is going to bite that pipe in two; and when that happens, he will be able to devote his time exclusively to Chemistry. "I. V." is one of the best students in the Class (See Daggeit's E. E. quizzes); but that doesn't keep him from walking like Johnny Booker, and having a swell line of jokes. If he keeps up as he's going now, some day he'll make du Pont famous.

ELBERT ALONZO GRIFFIN
Goldsboro, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 5 feet 2 inches
Weight, 130

Class Basket-Ball (1, 2, 3); Class Football (1); Math. Club; Vice-President Phi. Society, President (4); Business Manager "YACKETY YACK"; German Club; I.K.K.

Company "D"

He may be "SHORTY," but you'll hunt a long time before you find as much good nature packed in so small a space. He struck up an acquaintance with Math. in his Freshman year, and has been beguiled into following Major's footsteps ever since. He is one of those people who never perform wonders, but are the mainstays of any Class. If anyone deserves to succeed, and goes to meet success with our heartiest good will, it is "SHORTY."

EARL ELMER GROVES
Gastonia, N. C.

Age, 21; Height, 5 feet 7 inches
Weight, 140

Di. Society; President Gaston County Club; Freshman Prize in Sketches; German Club.

"SHORTY" is a youth of promise, blissfully indifferent to the naughty world and its naughty ways. Nevertheless, he is one who isn't at all lady-shy. He is already booked for a career as a financier, and in addition to this is a standing candidate for the Glee Club. A master of all stringed instruments, he has the unusual accomplishment of "tickling the ivory" with the staccato movement.

JOHN MINOR GWYNN
Leaksville, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 5 feet 8 inches
Weight, 137

Di. Society; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet; Rockingham County Club, President (3); Eben Alexander Greek Prize (2); Class Baseball (2, 3); Class Tennis (3); Class Basket-Ball (2, 3); All-Class Basket-Ball (3); Varsity Basket-Ball Squad (3); Varsity Sub. (4); Wearer of N. C.; Associate Editor University Magazine (4); Associate Editor "Tarheel" (4); Library Assistant; ΦBK; ΣT; ΩΔ; ΕΦΔ.

Lieutenant Company "A"

"J. MINOR" entered our life quietly, and has won enviable recognition among his comrades on the campus in the same manner. His record in the classroom, on the campus, on the athletic field, on the editorial boards of the "Tarheel" and the "University Magazine," characterize him as a man who by sheer determination and ability has worked up. If there is a task to be done promptly, and done well, we count on him. We are willing to stake our reputation on his success.

WILLIAM TROY HARPER
Wakefield, N. C.

Age, 26; Height, 5 feet 9 inches
Weight, 148

Medical Society; Member Y. M. C.
A; Wake County Club.

THOMAS PERRIN HARRISON, JR.
Raleigh, N. C.

Age, 21; Height, 5 feet 9 inches
Weight, 170

Phi. Society; Wake County Club;
Manager Class Track Team (3); Class
Baseball (2, 3); ΔKE.

Corporal Company "A"

HARPER is very popular with his Profs. He has been Assistant in Botany and in Histology. He works hard, and stays in his room a good deal of the time. Application will carry him forward.

"TUBEY" is one of those quiet people who has kept away from the public for four years. If you can ever catch him, and get around the quiescent barrier, you'll find a man who thinks and believes things, and has the good taste not to tell everybody about them. Tho he doesn't let many know it, he is made of the right stuff, and will, slowly and methodically, reach the goal he has set for himself.

MATTHEW JAMES HATCHER
Mount Olive, N. C.

Age, 24; Height, 5 feet 9 inches
Weight, 138

D. Society; North Carolina Club;
Secretary Wayne County Club; Class
Track (1, 2); Varsity Track (2, 3).

"He keeps the noiseless tenor of his way." It has been rumored that HATCHER is in college this year, but few have seen him. An easy-going chap, quiet but firm, and with ideas of his own, he has starred in Rip Van Winkle for four years. We expect great things from "HATCHU" when he begins to turn loose on the world the great store of things he has quietly absorbed here.

CHARLES HOLMES HERTY, JR.

Age, 21; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 135

Class Tennis (1); Varsity Tennis (3); Varsity Baseball (2, 3, 4); Wearer of N. C.; German Club; Chemical Journal Club; Elisha Mitchell Scientific Society; "Tarheel" Board (2); Editor "Carolina Chemist" (4); Assistant Leader Sophomore Hop (2); Class Treasurer (4); Commencement Marshal (3); Manager Freshman Baseball Team (3); Commencement Ball Manager (4); Golden Fleece; Gimghoul; AXS; ΦBK; ΔKE.

HOLMES is one of our versatile geniuses, tho it took us some time to realize it. We knew all the time that he was a good fellow, and could play tennis; but who would have thought that he would be one of Carolina's best infielders in recent years, and, besides this, would carry off a Phi Beta Kappa key? Well, he did; and we are proud of him for it.

CLEM BOLTON HOLDING
Raleigh, N. C.

Age, 21; Height, 6 feet 3 inches
Weight, 195

Varsity Basket-Ball (1, 2); Class Secretary (3); Class Football (3); President Wake County Club (3); Associate Editor "Tarheel" (3); Secretary Athletic Association (4); Representative-at-Large Athletic Council (4); Horner Club, President (4); Coop; Gimghoul; BOLL.

Captain Company "B"

"Give me some music; music, moody food for us who trade in love," quoth the esteemed William S., and tho "C." will agree, he will go the said William one better with one of his own composition. For "C." is our versatile genius—combination poet, athlete, soldier, sailor, 'possum hunter, and orator; and still he is one of the most popular men in College. Tiring of basket-ball, he has recently bent all of his energies towards military training, where he has made a complete success. He possesses a big frame and a sunny disposition, and has won the lasting friendship and admiration of us all. He leaves us for immediate service in the Naval Reserve Force. The best o' luck, my lad!

GRAHAM DAVIS HOLDING
Raleigh, N. C.

Age, 22; Height, 6 feet 1 inch
Weight, 200

Wake County Club; Secretary Horner Club; Class Basket-Ball (1); Manager Class Football (3); Manager Varsity Baseball (4); Athletic Council; Coop; Golden Fleece; Uks; BOLL.

Captain Company "A"

"G." is big and good natured; so everybody likes him. After two years of self-elected obscurity, he burst into unwonted prominence when military drill was started last spring, and has demonstrated his superior ability by holding down a captaincy this year. When he joined the Navy, we were deprived of having his genial bigness with us to the end of the year. We regret losing him so soon, and say to him most heartily, "The best of luck to you, Mate!"

LEVI HAYWOOD JOBE
Mebane, N. C.

Age, 22; Height, 6 feet 2 inches
Weight, 154

Di. Society; Alamance County Club;
North Carolina Club.

JOBE has an attractive smile. He has worked hard during his stay at Carolina, and has the laundry market cornered. JOBE is soon to be a member of our citizen army. He'll be a splendid "soldier of freedom."

FRANK BELL JOHN
Laurinburg, N. C.

Age, 19; Height, 5 feet 9½ inches
Weight, 170

Di. Society; Manager Class Basket-Ball (3); Football Squad (3); ΦBK; ΣAE.

Company "D"

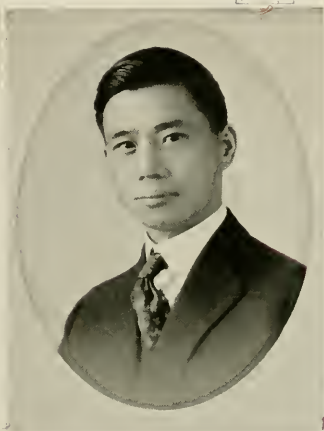

FRANK is one of the quiet, reserved, studious sort; he always worries about his work, and then gets Ones. Few ever got behind his almost impenetrable wall of reticence, but those who have, have found a kind, amiable, thoughtful fellow, with a big brain, who well deserves his easily won Phi Beta Kappa grades.

GEORGE WASHINGTON JOHNSON
Wallace, N. C.

KAMEICHI KATO
Hiroshima, Japan

Age, 26; Height, 5 feet 5 inches
Weight, 118

Di. Society; Latin-American Club; International Polity Club; Wearer of the Hyosho Medal; Math. Club; Associate Editor "University Magazine;"
Greater Council (4); Amphoterothern;
EΦΔ; ΣΤ.

KATO is our Japanese-American. He hails from the Land of the Rising Sun, but carries an American education that would put to shame the majority of his classmates. He speaks, thinks, and writes English as fluently as tho it were his native tongue. And with his wise scholarship he has mingled a pleasing and congenial disposition, which makes him liked by everybody. We are proud of Kameichi, because he is the first Japanese student to complete a regular, four-year course in the University. We believe he has the true Carolina spirit, and feel confident that he will do a great work in welding more inseparably the ties that bind the country of his birth to that of his education.

GEORGE helps run the Infirmary; and sick students bless his name, for he'll come in and ease their pains at midnight. He is our youngest second-year Med. student, and gets the old "B. S." degree while still a youth. GEORGE checks off all the work, and is a Gym. man of ability. We know he'll make good.

1918 YACKETY YACK

JAMES CONNOR KENNEDY
Moltonville, N. C.

Age, 26; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 130

Latin-American Club; North Carolina
Club; Sampson County Club.

ERNESTINE KENETTE
Chapel Hill, N. C.

A.B., State Normal and Industrial College.

He's a philosopher, maybe, and is red-headed. "J. C." had to make up a year, and enter in our Senior year with handicaps; yet he made the Honor Roll. His long suit is History, in which he blinds his Profs. by dissertations.

MISS KENETTE is one of those rather demure, retiring little creatures, who comes on the campus for her classes, and then goes off again. That her mind is in converse proportion to her stature is demonstrated by the fact that she takes Mr. Williams' Logic, and gets away with it, while Phi Beta Kappa men stumble and fall by the wayside.

DURELLE BOYD KIMBALL, JR.
Henderson, N. C.

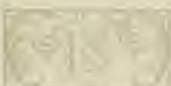

Age, 20; Height, 6 feet 1 inch
Weight, 160

German Club; Pan-Hellenic Council;
Associate Editor "YACKETY YACK";
Leader Easter German; Coop; Gorgon's Head; KΣ.

Sergeant Company "B"

"D. BOYD" has developed, with us, from an irresponsible Freshman to a serious Senior. He has never indulged to any great extent in extra-curriculum work; but what he has undertaken he has done well. He's easy-going, and no matter what happens, DUBY is certain to "pack up his troubles in his old kit bag, and snile. . . ."

WILLIAM BERNARD KINLAW
Rocky Mount, N. C.

Age, 21; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 151

German Club; Glee Club (2, 3); Band (1, 2); Secretary and Treasurer Nash-Edgcombe County Club (1, 2); Assistant Leader German Club Dance (3); Assistant Leader Easter German (4); Scrub Baseball (1, 2); Varsity Baseball (3); Assistant Manager Varsity Basketball (3); Manager (4); Medical Society; Wearer of N. C.; Athletic Council; Coop; ΦΧ; ΦΔΘ.

"BEANIE" KINLAW — that's enough. Everyone knows of his skiffing trips, his dancing, and the number of girls he invites to the dances. But "BEANIE" can do things. He made the Varsity pitching staff last year, and did not lose a game. As manager of the basket-ball team, he successfully patched up a schedule in spite of the war fever. We predict a successful medical career for KINLAW.

1918 YACKETY YACK

HENRY VALENTINE KOONTS
Mount Ulla, N. C.

Age, 22; Height 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 160

Di. Society; Vice-President Rowan County Club; North Carolina Club; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet; Manager University Book Exchange.

Corporal Company "D"

There is nothing peculiar about "H. V." except his white hair. Charlie Woolfen thinks he is one of the best men in the Class. He manages the University Book Store, and always greets you with a broad smile (when he thinks you will buy something). He will make an excellent business man. Cares little for anything except history, and is an ardent student of Dr. Pierson. He is one of the greatest jesters of the Class, and is ready at all times for a joke.

CLINTON BRACE LANDIS
Marion, N. C.

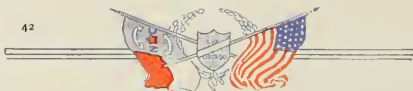

Age, 22; Height, 5 feet 8 inches
Weight, 132

McDowell County Club; Di. Society;
Military Band (4); German Club.

Company "D"

CLINTON is an enthusiastic musician, a dancer, and an ardent advocate of Woman Suffrage. His strongest approval is a good-natured chuckle, and his most vigorous dissent is expressed by a shrug of the shoulders and the mild, prolonged ejaculation, "Shoo-o-o!" Great was his help to the military band in tooting "Over There," in '17-'18. We wish LANDIS the best of luck.

GEORGE BALCH LAY
Raleigh, N. C.

Age, 23; Height, 5 feet 8 inches
Weight, 140

Associate Editor "University Magazine;" Class Football (1); Varsity Football Squad (1, 2); Phi. Society; Assistant in Geology (4); Wake County Club; Editor "County Bulletin." North Carolina Club; Brotherhood of St. Andrew; Elisha Mitchell Scientific Society.

Corporal Company "A"

GEORGE is a satellite of Collier Cobb, and the most prolific man in literary production in the Class. He handed in an average of twenty-one contributions for each issue of the "Magazine." He is one of those three-year wonders that the Class delights to have. You can not find a more poised fellow than G. B.; and we predict for him a bright future.

ANNA FORBES LIDDELL
Charlotte, N. C.

Age, 26; Height, 4 feet 9½ inches
Weight, 105

Mecklenburg County Club; "Tarheel" Staff (3, 4); University of North Carolina Woman's Association; Dramatic Association.

MISS LIDDELL was with us in our Freshman year; then deserted, but returned in time to graduate with us. She is one of the first of the new regime which has turned "Co-Eds" into "women students in the University." When she came the first time, the sight of a lady on the campus was an event talked of for weeks; now you can't look around without seeing several. She was also the first lady to put herself on a basis of absolute equality with the boys. She acted like a nice, companionable human being, and immediately was taken as such. She isn't afraid of us, as they used to be; so we no more look with scorn upon the Co-Eds. She talks a great deal, and is the only person in College who can absolutely tell you what Horace Williams means, when he himself does not know. She is a good fellow.

JOE BURTON LINKER
Salisbury, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 6 feet; Weight, 165

Di. Society; Elisha Mitchell Scientific Society; Latin-American Club; Math. Club; North Carolina Club; Rowan County Club, Secretary - Treasurer (2, 3), President (4); University Band (1); Commencement Marshal (3); Vice-President Athletic Association; Holder of Julian S. Carr Fellowship; Golden Fleece; Secretary ΦBK.

Sergeant Company "C"

LINKER is known as the man who makes "Ones." He led his Class in scholarship for nearly three years, altho working his way thru college in the printshop; and at the end of the first three years he stood only .14 of one point below the highest. He is distinctly a scholar. The qualities which have won him the esteem of his college mates will earn him distinction in whatever fie'd he casts his fortune. He is a "One" man.

RUSSELL OSEBORNE LYDAY
Brevard, N. C.

Height, 5 feet 5 inches; Weight, 135

Vice-President Medical Society; Y. M. C. A.: ΦX.

LYDAY hails from Trinity; and we are glad he came to us. He has many friends, and moves among us with a qu'et dignity. He is a good student, and a Naval Reserve.

PETER FRANCISCO LYNCH
Raleigh, N. C.

Age, 19; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 145

Phi. Society; Wake County Club;
German Club; Class Football (2, 3);
Class Baseball (1, 2); Class Basket-
Ball (2); Scrub Basket-Ball (3);
Varsity Basket-Ball (4); Wearer of
N. C.; Varsity Tennis (4).

Company "B"

In his Freshman days, under the tutelage of Frank Graham, PETER's tiny footsteps were placed on the right path, and he has been following it ever since. Altho not possessing a superabundance of surplus energy, he has represented our Class in every form of athletic activity, and his efforts have been rewarded. His new book, "From Water Boy to 'Varsity Forward'" will soon be off the press. In spite of a few idiosyncrasies, PETER is well-liked; and whatever it is—determination or stick-ability or ambition—he's got it.

WILLIAM DOUGALD MACMILLAN, III
Wilmington, N. C.

Age 20; Height, 5 feet 8 inches
Weight, 118

Phi. Society; New Hanover County Club; Dramatic Club, Secretary-Treasurer (3), President (4); "YACKETY YACK" Board (3); "Senior Stunt" Committee; Dramatic Club Cast (2, 4); German Club; Satyrs; ST; ΩΔ; ΑΤΩ.

"Doug"—"DOUGALD"—in his four years with us has distinguished himself as one of marked histrionic and literary talent. Eccentric, droll, unique even, and quiet withal, DOUGALD would have liked to have been a French noble of the old régime before the decadence. He moves in an atmosphere unruffled by the common herd. We believe that in DOUGALD we have an embryonic G. B. S.

ROBERT WILSON MADRY
Scotland Neck, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 5 feet 6 inches
Weight, 135

Phi. Society; Halifax-Warren County Club, President (3), Secretary (4); Latin-American Club, Vice-President and Press Reporter (4); Dramatic Association; "Tarheel" Staff; Assistant Editor "University Magazine;" North Carolina Club; German Club; ΣΤ.

Corporal Company "A"

SNIPES is "right there with the goods" when it comes to writing up "Tarheel" dope, or getting in contributions for the "Magazine." And he enjoys his literary work. But the best thing about SNIPES is his personality; he is always in the best of humor; smiling, talking, more often laughing, he puts everybody who comes in contact with him in a good humor.

HERMAN EARL MARSH
Marshville, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 5 feet 11 inches
Weight, 165

Di. Society; Union County Club; Wearer of the Hyosho Medal; Carolina-Goodyear Club; Assistant in Geology (4); Minstrel Association (3, 4); President of ΦΒΚ; ΕΦΔ.

Company "C"

EARL is a splendid student, who was not satisfied with anything less than the presidency of Phi Beta Kappa (and he didn't begin majoring in Geology until after he had made it). With a college record like this behind him, we feel sure he will make a glorious success in life.

ROBERT BINGHAM MCKEE
Asheville, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 6 feet  $\frac{1}{2}$  inch
Weight, 185

German Club; Glee Club (3, 4);
Mandolin Club (3, 4); President Minstrel Association; Buncombe County
Club; Quartet; Leader Fall German
Club Dance; Class Basket-Ball;
Dramatic Club Cast: "YACKERY YACK"
Board; Chief Commencement Ball
Manager; Coop; Uks; Satyr; Gorgon's
Head; BOLL.

First Lieutenant Company "A"

BINGHAM dropped in from Davidson last year, bringing with him a beautiful complexion, a habit of kidding everybody, and a voice. He has sung and guitaried himself all over the State with the Glee Club, and with marked success we believe. He is an overgrown Bonaparte we feel sure, having been born and bred in a military school. He is a good fellow, and you can't help liking him.

BENJAMIN LACY MEREDITH
Newbern, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 5 feet 11 inches
Weight, 150

Dramatic Club, Member of Cast
"Arms and the Man" (1), "Witching Hour" (2), "Food" (3), "The Man of the Hour" (4), Vice-President (4);
Chemical Journal Club; Elisha Mitchell
Scientific Society; Assistant in Chemistry (4); Fellow in Organic Chemistry
(4); Satyr; ΩΔ; ΑΧΣ.

LACY became prominent in our Freshman year by playing an important role in "Arms and the Man." Since then he has been the leading feminine impersonator on the campus, and has done it well, too. But he is by no means limited to the wiggled parts, and also plays creditably anything that comes his way. Besides his histrionic ability, he is among the brightest in that galaxy that crowds the Chemical Labs. We like him.

JAMES ERWIN MONTGOMERY
Burlington, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 135

Di. Society; President Alamance
County Club (4); German Club; Glee Club (2); HKA.

MONT moves in a sphere of calm serenity, unruffled by the changing tides of student life; he rides the swells with an easy grace envied by many of us; and is a bit of a songster, too. The subtlety of his own peculiar personal magnetism grips, and makes friends of the lasting kind.

WILLIAM FRED MORRISON
Statesville, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 5 feet 8½ inches
Weight, 130

Di. Society; Math. Club; Elisha Mitchell Scientific Society; Instructor in Drawing 1917-18; Jredell County Club; Winner Cain Math. Medal.

FRED is one of those individuals who may be caught early in the morning or late at night going or returning from Lab. His quiet, reserved, unassuming manner has won for him many friendships of the warmer kind; his persistent energy has gained for him a reputation among the Profs.; and we find him, in his Senior year, taking Bob James' place as instructor in Engineering Drawing.

ERNEST NEIMAN
Charlotte, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 5 feet 11 inches
Weight, 145

Di. Society; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (4);
Menorah Society; Assistant in Chemistry (4); Dramatic Association, Cast (4); ΦBK.

ALBERT LEE O'BRIANT
Timberlake, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 150

Phi. Society; Medical Society; KΨ.

When in doubt, "Ven." and Wheeler consult ERNEST about their bromohydroxynaptheguinoxones, which is to say that, in the Chemical Lab., he ranks as a mighty wielder of the test tubes. The mere fact that he gained one of those little keys at the end of his Junior year, in spite of scarlet fever when a Freshman, would seem to infer that he is a grind; but we know him better. He is a good fellow, a good friend.

O'BRIANT, or "Doc," is young, but he's a diligent pursuer of knowledge. Doc. always has a smile for everyone. He goes quietly about his duties.

ALBERT OETTINGER
Wilson, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 6 feet 1 inch
Weight, 200

Phi. Society; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet

(4); Dramatic Club (4); Executive Committee North Carolina Club (4);
International Polity Club, Secretary
(4); German Club; ΩΔ; ΕΦΔ; ΦΒΚ.

Corporal Company "D"

OETTINGER's career in the University has been that of a strong man growing stronger. He has specialized in scholarship, in Literary Society work, in the social side of life, in everything, and is a leader in them all. His interest in the welfare of his companions and the campus have won him the esteem of his college-mates. His unquestioned ability, his wise judgment, his stick-to-it-iveness, and withal a certain happy turn, explain alike his Phi Beta Kappa key and his presidency of his Law Class, and form the basis of our confidence in his success.

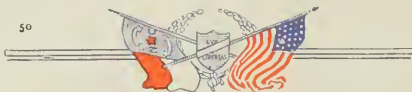

RALPH WEAVER PARK
Statesville, N. C.

Age, 23; Height, 5 feet 9 inches
Weight, 160

Di. Society; Math. Club; Elisha
Mitchell Scientific Society; Latin-
American Club; Secretary Iredell
County Club.

RALPH is a serious, earnest, quiet sort of a fellow, who came to college to study, and has been doing it ever since. He is one of those retiring engineering hermits. RALPH is sound, and we expect much of him.

JOHN WILLIAM PATTON
Murphy, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 5 feet 11 inches
Weight, 156

Di. Society: Assistant in Zoölogy (4).

CLAUDE RUFUS PEAFF
Pfafftown, N. C.

Age, 25; Height, 6 feet; Weight, 178

University Band (1, 2, 3, 4); Assistant Manager University Book Exchange
(3, 4); President of Forsyth County Club.

Company "C"

JOHN has worked his way thru by sheer stickability. He has taken his studies as a business proposition. That he has succeeded in no small degree, is shown by his being one of Dr. Wilson's Zoölogy Assistants.

No, that look, there's no mistaking it! He means business, with no time for play. He will sell you a "YACKETY YACK," a subscription to some paper or other, or a set of library books, while you talk. He is an adopted son, since "Sixteen claims the credit of his discovery. Quiet he is, unostentatious, a hard student, and resourceful. Turn him loose on a South Sea Island, and in a week he'll make a fortune selling the natives military suits of fig leaves.

ROLAND ERNEST PRICE

Age, 25; Height, 5 feet 11 inches
Weight, 220

Society (4); Secretary Class (4); Y. M. C. A. Cabinet; Author "Rutherford County Bulletin."

Company "C"

CUTEY is by far the biggest ladies' man in the Class. Nor is that the only superlative possessed by him. If you don't believe he can sell books, write S. A. Mullikin Company, or any of those fair dames in Catawba County that CUTEY visited several summers ago. CUTEY is a rare combination of corpulency, humor, and good-naturedness.

HUGH WILLIAMSON PRINCE
Dunn, N. C.

Age, 21; Height, 5 feet 9 inches
Weight, 145

Phi. Society; German Club; Glee Club; Band; Orchestra; Captain Class Tennis Team (3); Captain Varsity Tennis Team (4); "YACKETY YACK" Board; HKA.

Company "D"

HUGH is one of the few happy souls who get there, somehow, even tho they never let anything worry them. Won a tennis game which in his last year entitled him to the distinction of "Lord High Custodian of the Courts." He is a solid man in nearly every way, and where he isn't, he has got you fooled to death, and so his defects never show. The time-honored phrase "bound to succeed" really fits the man in this case.

Age, 19; Height, 5 feet 7 inches
Weight, 110

A.B., Queens College 1917.

MISS REID came to us from Queens
College in the last lap of the race.
Pleasant at all times, full of fun, and possessing a full share of woman's charms, "JOLIE" has proved herself an exceptional student (she can joke in French), an earnest class worker, and a friend of many. In addition to that, she is a basket-ball star, and a scientific tennis player. Old Nineteen-Eighteen has no member more loyal to the Class, or more representative of the Carolina spirit.

SAMUEL LESLIE REID
Lowell, N. C.

Age, 23; Height, 6 feet 1 inch
Weight, 140

Di. Society; Clericus Club; International Polity Club; Gaston County Club; North Carolina Club; EΦΔ.

REID is one of those modest, unassuming individuals who doesn't have much to say, but is always found prompt in the performance of his duty. He is the type of man who does his silent bit without any attempt at pretext or show. He is a great admirer and ardent disciple of Phillips Brooks. When he is not engaged in some involved disputation on the principles of philosophy, you will find him in his room poring over a big volume of the life and works of the famous minister of Trinity Church, Boston.

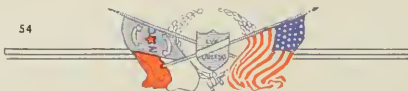

DAVID ATWELL RENDLEMAN
Salisbury, N. C.

Height, 5 feet 7½ inches; Weight, 142

Di. Society; Rowan County Club; Dramatic Association (1); Glee Club; Mandolin Club; Orchestra; Class Track (1); Class Basket-Ball (1, 2, 3); Class Baseball (2, 3); Class Football (3); Varsity Gym. Team (2, 3, 4); Wearer of N. C.; BΦ.

The way he turns himself inside out on the bars has won our admiration, and his letter in the Gym. Like the other "Dave," this one is small of stature, but he tells us he is making the Law Profs. look like so many Goliaths. He is the friend of everyone except the inmates of Carr Barn, in whose breasts seditious grumblings are caused by his attempts on the violin; still, they too wish him the best of luck. Note: We find as we go to press that he's been married, since December. Why, David!

Prom. (3); President German Club;
Commencement Ball Manager;  $\Pi\kappa\alpha$ .

Corporal Company "C"

RALPH, U. S. N. R. F. P. D. Q. S. O. S., has chased the elusive N. C. for three years. Jewett and Kaiser Bill have kept it away from him, so he has started in for revenge by joining the Naval Reserves. A dash of nails, a beaker, some cinders, and a happy smile constitute the make-up of one of the Class's sturdiest and best-liked men.

"Icky," the happy-go-lucky; "Icky," the sock-charmer; "Icky," the devil—who ever saw a hop where "Icky" wasn't? Musical in more ways than one, his bones just won't be still when notes are flowing. And his heart's as big as a barrel—his glowing good-nature reaches out and warms all with whom he comes in contact.

1918 YACKETY YACK

JAMES PINCKNEY SAWYER
Asheville, N. C.

Age, 23; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 170

Class Football (1); Class Track (1, 2); Class Basket-Ball (1, 2); Buncombe County Club; Elisha Mitchell Scientific Society; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet; Assistant in Chemistry; AXΣ.

Lieutenant Company "D"

"J. P." makes Sunny Jim look like a cloudy night, with his "smile that won't come off." It may be on account of those Chem. I make-up Lab. fees, but we suspect more feminine reasons. He is a brother U. S. N. R. F., etc., of Rimmer's, and expects some glorious adventures. His smile and ability will put him where he belongs—well on the road to success.

ISAAC SCHWARTZ
Raleigh, N. C.

Age, 21; Height, 5 feet 4 inches
Weight, 122

Phi. Society; Wake County Club; Menorah Society; Freshman Continuation Committee.

Corporal Company "B"

ISAAC keeps the class informed. He is a perfect combination of newspaper, encyclopedia, and compendium of general information. If you really want to know, ask IKE. He is authority on athletics, campus news, military dope, current happenings, drug store gossip, and the war. But IKE carries more than a mass of facts in that striking head of his. He has common sense, is a good student, especially in the world of Economics; and the Class predicts for him a great success.

WALKER PLEASANT SMITH
Chapel Hill, N. C.

Age, 23; Height, 5 feet 6 inches
Weight, 125

Alamance County Club; North Carolina Club; Di. Society.

IRA WELLBORN SMITHEY
Wilkesboro, N. C.

Age, 26; Height, 5 feet 7 inches
Weight, 165

Di. Society; Elisha Mitchell Scientific Society.

"W. P." didn't stay with us all of our Senior year, but went to Washington to "do his bit" in the Civil Service. He moved quietly among us, and tho slightly shy, he responded to friendly advances with an appreciative smile. He was a man with the "good old Class spirit."

SMITHEY is a steady, good fellow, who performs his duty, and does it well. He works consistently in Chemistry, and made lots of "Ones" in his advance courses in his Senior Year. Here's our best wishes to "IRA W."

LEWIS LEISTER SPANN
Granite Falls, N. C.

Age, 23; Height, 6 feet; Weight, 178

Di. Society; German Club; Caldwell County Club; Rutherford College Club; Scrub Football (1); Class Baseball (2, 3); Class Football (2, 3); North Carolina Club.

"Lucius" resided at Dr. Lawson's, till he moved in with Tom Stokes this year. He is dignified, and is the guardian angel of the Gym, even during the dances. He makes a good friend, and has ambitions to be an ornithologist.

WILLIAM TRABUE STEELE
Nashville, Tenn.

Age, 21; Height, 5 feet 7 inches
Weight, 140

Phi. Society; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (2, 3), Executive Committee (3), President (4); "YACKETY YACK" Board (2, 3); Assistant Editor-in-Chief "University Magazine;" Secretary Tennis Association (2); German Club; Gimghoul; Golden Fleece; ΣΥ; ΔΦΕ.

Corporal Company "A"

BILLY and the Y. M. C. A. are synonymous terms. In his younger days, it sheltered him; and he'll protect it now. In fact, that is what he is doing. He came a long way to get to us; and we are glad, for both our sakes. A little religion on the campus is an excellent thing, and charity covers the sins—not that BILLY has a multitude, far from it—but he has the charity all right. He is a steady person, who will never rock the boat regardless of how agitated he is. If you ever want anything done, get BILLY to do it for you.

WILLIAM HERMAS STEPHENSON
Raleigh, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 150

Sec'y Y. M. C. A. (4); Cabinet (3, 4);

terothens; Golden Fleece; ΕΦΔ; ΣΤ; ΩΔ;
ΤΚΑ; ΦΒΚ; ΣΧ.

Sergeant Company "B"

Most of HERMAS' success in College may be attributed to his use of the English language, both oral and written.
HERMAS has adorned the editorial staff of each of our College publications, and this year he and his staff have produced the best "University Magazine" of recent years. His sincerity of purpose and purity of character assure for him a true success. His statistics show clearly just what he has meant to University life. May he mean as much proportionally to the world as a whole.

RALPH MADISON STOCKTON
Winston-Salem, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 5 feet 7 inches
Weight, 132

Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (2, 3, 4);

Club; Di. Society; Secretary Pan-
Hellenic Council (4); Vice-President
Forsyth County Club; Coop; Gorgon's
Head; ΩΔ; ΔΚΕ.

Corporal Company "C"

RALPH is the most dignified man in the Class, adheres strictly to form, and is liked by everybody. He never thinks, says, or does anything that would mar
the name of gentleman. You will find him always in a good humor, never giving way to the outbursts of feeling of more emotional natures, and tempering all with a sunny cheerfulness that counts for everything in the world.

THOMAS DODDS STOKES
Ruffin, N. C.

Age, 21; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 155

Di. Society: Rockingham County

First Sergeant Company "B"

If a man's excellence can be judged by his actions, Buzz is at the top. He has added his helpful and strong support to practically every College activity. Behind all that he does is a poet's spirit, which has tempered his actions, and won for him the respect and lasting friendship of all.

JOHN SKALLY TERRY

Richmond Co. Club; Greater Council (4);
Asst. Ed.-in-Chief "Magazine" (4); Senior
Stunt Committee; Latin-American Club;
Asst. Ed. "Tarheel"; Wearer of the Hyosho
Medal; International Polity Club; Asso. Ed.
"Yackety Yack"; N. C. Club, Exec. Com.
(4);  $\Phi\Delta\Sigma$ ;  $\Omega\Delta$ ;  $\Sigma\Gamma$ .

JOHN TERRY is the biggest man in the class—not only in body, but in mind and spirit. His ideas are big, and when he attempts to put them thru we find his capacity for accomplishment to be just as big. YACKETY YACK was going under for the third time when JOHN rushed single-handed to the rescue. But JOHN's biggest idea is the movement, of which he was a prime mover, to knit closer the link between this country and Japan. Withal, he is both a good student and a poet of no mean ability. No "Magazine" has appeared this year but that carried some of his writing, and bore the stamp of his efforts. All these achievements are tempered by a frank and jolly disposition.

BENJAMIN HINTON THOMAS
Rocky Mount, N. C.

Age, 21; Height 6 feet; Weight, 160

German Club; Phi. Society; President
Nash-Edgecombe County Club (2);
Fresh-Soph Debate (1).

BEN entered college with the Class of Nineteen, but, being from a railroad town, it was quite the natural thing for him to "railroad" it thru college and finish with the Class of Eighteen, thus completing in three years the work which most of us do in four. Don't infer from this that BEN is a grind, for nothing is further from the truth. He takes life easy, and has plenty of spare time for a few jokes and good-fellowship. He always gets his job done, whatever it be.

1918 YACKETY YACK

EDWARD WARRICK
Sioux, N. C.

Age, 26; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 155

Di. Society; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet;
Class Basket-Ball; Class Baseball.

We knew Ed was a class A 1 man before his local board told us. He is a great admirer of the Williamsses, but he seems to get his concept of education mixed up a little at times. This will not prevent his being an excellent soldier; and after he has "done his bit," a good school teacher.

MARION WILCOX
Elberton, Ga.

Age, 21; Height, 5 feet 6 inches
Weight, 130

A.B., Queens College 1917; Dramatic Club.

Well, here's Miss Wilcox, the other queen from Queens. Alto an attractive blonde, blessed with an intelligent woman's smile, Marion made  $\Phi\text{BK}$  marks in the only year with us, and took part in every activity open to women here.

At center on the basket-ball team, she was as efficient as on a Math. 4 exam. And that's not all—MARION filled a leading role in the Dramatic Club play.

THOMAS CLINGMAN WILKINS
Rose Hill, N. C.

Age, 26; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 185

Phi. Society; Duplin County Club.

HENRY VAN PETERS WILSON, JR.
Chapel Hill, N. C.

Age, 19; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 132

Phi. Society; Orange County Club;
German Club; Class Baseball (3);

Wearer of N. C.; Alexander Greek
Prize (3); YACKETY YACK Board (4);
Assistant Editor "Tarheel" (4); Assistant Leader Gimghoul German; Gimghoul; ΣΤ; ΦΒΚ; ΑΤΩ.

WILKINS is a man who talks for his own pleasure. It is said that the good die young, but old "WILK" is still with us. He is a "bull" in physique, and is mentally fairly well equipped. He started out for football in his Freshman year, but got no further than the gymnasium. Tho no student of medicine, his application of hot towels during the last "Tech" fight should make him indispensable to wounded soldiers in France.

In our Freshman days, FROGGY was very quiet and reserved, and we did not know him as we do today. He has kept the best in this quiet nature of his, and has a dignity and balance well becoming a gentleman, scholar, and athlete.

EDWARD PHILLIP WOOD
Canton, N. C.

Wearer of N. C.; AXΣ

Quiet, unassuming, and extremely dignified, Ed. will be found traveling his well-beaten path to Chemistry Lab., where the most difficult experiments melt away under his skillful hand. Ed. also possesses track ability, and the first warm rays of the spring sun will never fail to bring him out upon the cinders. He is a hard worker, and will some day "get there" in Chemistry.

WILLIAM ROBERT WUNSCH
Monroe, La.

Age, 21; Height, 5 feet 2 inches
Weight, 125

Di. Society; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet
(1, 2, 3, 4); Vice-President Y. M. C. A.
(4); Assistant in Physics; Minstrel
(3); Associate Editor "Tarheel" (4);
ΕΦΔ; ΩΔ; ΣΤ.

BOBBY WUNSCH is a pragmatist. He is one of the most energetic men in the Class. In addition to running Y. M. C. A. meetings, writing poetry, reporting for the "Tarheel," leading the University Singing Class, and passing his work, he reads volumes of Goethe and Schiller for a pastime. BOBBY is always busy, but is a good friend (ask Van Noppen.) He takes his work seriously, and intends to give his life to Christian service both during and after the war. The Class feels confident of his success.

WILLIAM MARVIN YORK
Hight Point, N. C.

Height, 5 feet 11 inches; Weight, 140

President Di. Society; Junior Oratorical Contest; Commencement Debate; President Debating Council; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet; Guilford County Club; President Senior Class; Athletic Council; Wearer of the Hyosho Medal; Varsity Track (1, 2); Manager Varsity Track; Manager University Magazine; Student Council; Greater Council; International Polity Club; Amphoterethen; Golden Fleece; EΦΔ; TKA.

BILLY is the best business man in the Class. He has been working ever since he was an infant, and as a result of the process has worked his way to the top. BILLY believes that all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy, so he takes out his play by participation in all the leading movements on the campus. As manager of the "Magazine," Dictator of Swain Hall, and president of the Senior Class, he has shown great versatility and ability to adapt himself to any situation. He has been the Woodrow Wilson of his Class and the student-body during the past year.

RICHARD LEONIDAS YOUNG
Charlotte, N. C.

Age, 22; Height, 5 feet 7 inches
Weight, 130

Di. Society, Secretary (2); Secretary-Treasurer Mecklenburg County Club (1, 3), President (4); "YACKETY YACK" Board (3, 4); "Tarheel" Board (4); German Club; HKΦ.

Dick is what Dean Stacy likes to call "a good substantial fellow," a hard worker, a good student, and a valuable friend. Tho his own viewpoint makes it a bit difficult for him always to see the other fellow's, he argues his side good-naturedly, and when he has said everything he can think of, the other fellow gets his chance. Dick has chosen journalism as his field, and his whole ambition is to be editor of a paper just the "Charlotte Observer." Dick has qualities which will put him where he wants to go.

JASPER LEONIDAS STUCKEY
Kenly, N. C.

Age, 26; Height, 6 feet; Weight, 170

Phi. Society; Y. M. C. A.; North Carolina Club; Johnston County Club, Treasurer (2), Secretary (2), President (3); Superintendent Western Lime Plant, Bridgeport, Tenn., for North Carolina Department of Agriculture (4).

STUCKEY sent us his picture from Tennessee, and altho it was not made up like the others, he showed such true spirit, we had to use it. He is a geologist already in the field, and is one who has force of personality and character to back up his efforts. He is one of the solid men of our Class, thinks clearly, judges accurately, and makes us feel confident of his success.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

JUST four weeks after the outbreak of the great war, the present Senior Class was born. Coming as it did into an age of turbulence and strain, it has had to contend with the call of outside circumstances from its very birth.

The whole two hundred and seventy-eight of us, the largest Class that up to that time had sought admission into the University, were all equal in the beginning. But we were not long to remain so. Some spurted off from the start; others settled down to a steady jog-trot; while still others ran fitfully—now charging ahead, now lagging behind, and now dropping out of the race. So different were we in desires, intentions, and abilities that we soon came to have only one thing in common—purpose. To some this purpose has been a guiding star, prevailing against every summons of the outside world. Others have seen a star brighter to them than our own, and have gone as the wise men did of old to pay their respects to the Christ of universal right and equality among all people.

In many respects, Nineteen-Eighteen has been a typical Class. In others, it has been unusual, which distinguishes it from the classes that spring up here every four years, blossom, and then pass out to make room for other class waiting to take their place.

The fact that Eighteen has lived thru and had a part in a great transformation—not only in the University, but also in the outside world—is more significant for the Class than the mere incidents it has turned into history. In the spring of our Freshman year, we saw the most elaborate inauguration of a President that has ever taken place at the University. And with the coming of the regime there sprang up a new life, a rebirth of sacrifice and service devoted to the ever-growing number of students coming here for training, and just as truly to the masses of the people in every corner of the State. There can be no finer proof that the people of the State realize the value of this new service than Mrs. Bingham's generous bequest of $1,250,000, General Carr's fellowship of $5,000, and increased appropriations by the Legislature. And not only has the University found herself in the State, but she has set an enviable record for the other Universities of this country in patriotic national services. There were twenty-one men in the first rush for the Camps, who were members of the Class of Eighteen. And ever since our men have been leaving one by one. Practically all of those who have remained in school to graduate are taking the military science course, so as to be fitted, both intellectually and physically, when the call comes. This the Class of Eighteen has had a definite part in the new service both of the University to the State and of the Nation to the world.

Few Classes have been as closely knit together by ties of friendship as the Class of Eighteen. The presence of a common problem and danger has served to draw us closer together, as has been so well exemplified in the admittedly rare spirit at its banquets and smokers. It has been especially fortunate in its selection of presidents. Tennent, Bryant, Coates, and York have been its strong administrators, who seem to fit perfectly the terms they have served. The scholarship average has been above the normal class average for all four years, and eleven of our number—Marsh, Linker, Armstrong, John, Neiman, Oettinger, Wilson, Stephenson, Gwynn, Herty, and Terry—wear the coveted key.

Eighteen demonstrated its athletic prowess from the start, by winning the Class basket-ball championship. It has given to the University such athletes as

John C. Tayloe, L. M. Upchurch, Hugh Black, Fred Farthing, C. B. Webb, Wilbur Currie, Roy Bridgers, Phillip Hines, V. S. Bryant, Jr., P. F. Lynch, C. H. Herty, Jr., Preston Andrews, C. G. Tennent, Hugh Prince, and H. V. P. Wilson, Jr. In the varied fields of activity of the Y. M. C. A., members of our Class have done good work, and the organization itself has had a very remarkable year under the wise leadership of President Steele. Then debating and oratory have been efficiently administered by Albert Coates, who won the Peace Prize for the first time, Leo Carr, W. M. York, W. H. Stephenson, and J. V. Baggett. The Class has the unique distinction of having the first member from the Orient, Kameichi Kato, to complete a regular four-year course, and graduate with honor.

As the time for graduation and separation approaches, we are inclined to feel that we are about to reach the top of the hill, where we will find reward for the toils of our climb. But now! Looking out into the future, we find that it is only a very small knoll that we have come over, which really leads us to the bottom of the mountain of life. Up on its side we can see the nations of the earth grappling with each other in a motley, red confusion. But beyond the turmoil of the battlefield there is the sunshine of a new day, and this makes us feel that:

Now as the parting day draws nigh,
Carolina, '18,
We join our hands without a sigh,
Carolina, '18,
Let duty call us, here or there,
We are prepared to do and dare;
We'll fight for thee just anywhere—
Carolina, '18.

CLASS POEM

O COMRADES, let us halt a moment here,
And follow back our steps along the way,
Lest we forget the rugged foothills there—
The rocky trails—the dust—the heat of day:

Forget the hours spent in quiet repose
Beneath the shade of mighty oak and elm,
Or out upon some old historic knoll,
Where oft we've wandered back into the realm
Of fables and tradition, and have told
Our version, adding to the truth each time
A new interpretation, till we've got
A wild romance, with plot sublime
O come! Turn back! Why pause upon the spot?

But no! We dare not follow back the trail,
Or turn aside to either left or right,
Such wanton folly would but mean—to fail.
We've climbed the hills and reached at last the height,
From which in silence now we view the great,
Grim world that stretches out below.
A thousand paths lead down—we hesitate,
And wonder where each path may go;
And even while we stand aloof, and muse,
We see the surging masses at our feet
And hear them calling to us—come and lose
Yourselves down in the throng that crowds the street,
And lead us upward with the light you bring,
Until we find at last the Truth—and then
We hesitate. Have we the thing
That men are seeking for? We look again—
This time beyond the throng—and thru the haze
We see on every side the outstretched hand
That calls for servants, working not for praise,
But for the love of serving—and we stand
Amazed, and ask ourselves if we can lead,
And leading serve, our fellow-men below.
O comrades, let us hasten now, and speed
Along the path each one of us must go.

But far away we see a thick cloud rise
And cast its gloom out over land and sea,
And swelling, spread before our very eyes
The scenes of blood and endless crime—and we Must plunge into the darkness and the din
And grapple there with death and dank disease!
Why, have we spent so many years to win
This height, and then with brain and brawn appease
The raging appetite of fiendish war?
But no! The hills that led us to the crest
To view this sight—prepared us also for
Our part in strife, and nerved us for the test
Of Liberty and right of men to live
Against the rule of Might, Autocracy!
Come! Let us hasten down below, and give
The best we have to save Democracy!

CLASS OF NINETEEN-NINETEEN

IN September of the year 1915, about three hundred and fifteen boys registered as Freshmen at the University of North Carolina, of an average physical development, bright, and with one hope in mind, namely: that in nineteen-nineteen they should receive, thru a sincere and determined effort, a diploma from the University that should be symbolic of a period of four years spent on "The Hill" in a wholesome, diligent pursuit of knowledge; doing honor not only to the Class of Nineteen-Nineteen but to the University of North Carolina.

A year later, of this three hundred and fifteen boys, two hundred and two registered to begin the second year of the required four.

By May, 1917, due to the declaration of war by the United States upon Germany, many of our boys had gone into direct service for their country.

In September, 1917, only approximately one hundred and thirty of the Nineteen-Nineteen Class registered. Among these were several Co-Eds. However, owing to the draft law, and to that patriotic feeling that is especially peculiar to college men, we have now only between ninety and a hundred boys. At first, a feeling of regret takes possession of us, when we consider how few we are. This, however, is quickly displaced by one of extreme pride, when we realize that our missing ones are in the service of our country; each and every one of whom is striving to do his duty in a heroic manner.

Nineteen-nineteen gave to the football squad fourteen men in 1916; four of whom—Bellamy, Currie, Grimes, and Johnson—played in the Virginia game. We also furnished a good number of men for the basket-ball and baseball squads—Sheppard being captain of the former, and Powell in the latter. In our Freshman year, the class basket-ball championship was won by us; and in our

Sophomore year both the class basket-ball and football championships. Briefly, this is a sketch of our Class in athletics.

Not only has the Class done much in enabling Carolina to put out effective athletic teams, but it has given many men to the Glee Club and the Dramatic Club. All the social organizations have been supported by Nineteen-Nineteen men, in numbers. The Literary Societies in our first year received nearly eighty members. In fact, the Class of Nineteen-Nineteen in the beginning had the material, and in all of the college activities it has put the right force in the right place.

Under the leadership of Hazelhurst as President, and the financial management of Gooding, our Class is doing well in the many and varied duties that fall upon it.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

SEPTEMBER, 1916, witnessed the debut of one of the largest throngs of Freshmen in the history of the University. No doubt Hinton James, the first student, and President Caldwell, the first President of the University, never dreamed that such a conglomeration of Fresh knowledge would ever adorn "The Hill" at one time. Some of this throng were wise; but the majority were Fresh, as usual.

Having successfully passed the examination on the Catalogue, and having convinced the Bursar of our reliability, we proceeded to convince the Seniors and Faculty of our ability. Next, we proceeded to organize our forces, and to try to ward off the jealousy of the Sophomores. In a stormy session, closely resembling Cromwell's Rump Parliament, we chose F. B. Harty to guide our Class thru the year, and J. Tayloe to record our virtues, and keep what the Bursar failed to get when we registered. Piloted by such leaders, our Class soon became accustomed to the Spirit of the University, and especially did it rapidly forge to the front in the various phases of college life.

Nineteen-sixteen and 'seventeen being the first year of the "one-year rule," our Classmen were ineligible for the Varsity football and baseball teams, but we centered our interest in our Class teams, and all of them contributed to the glory of the University, and especially to the glory of Nineteen-Twenty. The examinations revealed to us that we had a large number of Phi Beta Kappa candidates. Also, the Literary Societies discovered that we had several men that showed interest in debating. Our obstacles, composed chiefly of Sophomores, snowballs, and Math. problems, began to vanish by the first of June, and we realized that the time was not far away when we would have the pleasure of welcoming Nineteen-Twenty-One.

This year, we have assembled under very different circumstances from those under which we assembled last year. Many of our classmates enlisted during the summer in some branch of the Government service, and many others have gone into the service since September. Those of us that have not been drafted are preparing to serve our country in some capacity, when we are called. As a Class, we are mindful of President Wilson's utterance, on April 15, 1917, when he said: "The supreme test of the Nation has come, we must all speak, act, and serve together."

A gloom of sorrow was cast over us, when our classmate, Julian McIver, died, January 30, 1918. Our tribute to him can be expressed in the words of Dean Stacy: "He died in preparation for the defense of his country—a death as noble in spirit as a death on the battlefield."

As to the accomplishments of our Class, we can say that the work has been fully up to the University standard. The great majority of the members of our Class, and the other Classes, are taking Military Science. With President Spruill and Secretary Dowd at the helm, our Class continues its good record.

What our future will be, is uncertain; but if Captain Allen's prediction comes true, we are destined to oppose the Kaiser's forces, in either France or Germany, in the near future. After that, —— ??

SPENCER T. THORNE.....	..... Clerk
W. W. CANDLER.....	..... Sheriff

LAW SCHOOL

ELVIN LOY BUMGARNER
Hickory, N. C.

Age, 22; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 175

Secretary-Treasurer Catawba-Lincoln
County Club; Y. M. C. A.; Sheriff
Moot Court.

He will win out, "as of course." BUM has an opinion on everything, from "Domestic Relations" to the "Homestead Exemption." He does more thinking than studying. He's a Republican, from "bonnet to boot-heel," and keeps us all at our wit's end to refute his argument without introducing "extrinsic evidence." BUM is from Hickory, and we all feel that he will make that stout old tree more sound by his appearance there in its legal branch.

WILL W. CANDLER
Candler, N. C.

Age, 26; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 179

He's a "regular fellow." Coming from a stock of western North Carolina lawyers, he has the legal mind ab initio. He's the kind of fellow that will fight the legal battle to the finish; and that is not all—he's determined to help Uncle Sam win the war for freedom, for he has already joined the Aviation Corps. He'll be stirring up litigation with the Kaiser in a short time. CANDLER is one of our strongest props, and we are counting on him.

HAROLD DUNBAR COOLEY
Nashville, N. C.

Age, 20; Height, 5 feet 11 inches
Weight, 147

President Senior Law Class; President Nash-Edgecombe County Club; Assistant Manager Dramatic Club (3); Manager (4); Member Dramatic Club Cast; Glee Club; German Club; Class Baseball; Y. M. C. A.; Banquet; Smoker; N. C. O. Club; Greater Council; MΔΦ; ΦΔΘ.

The best-looking man in the Class, by actual vote. He represents the Law School at the University in all social affairs; and we all like him. He's our President; and we are proud of it. COOLEY is good gubernatorial timber. Watch the future Governors of North Carolina. He's a born lawyer; so he can't help from being a live lawyer. Take notice, ye clients.

EMERY BYRD DENNY

Age, 25; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 140

Di. Society; Y. M. C. A.; Rowan County Club, President (1); Vice-President Class; Class Orator.

A profound student of the law; rattles off the "Rule in Shelly's Case" and the "Canons and Descent" about as easy as we say "Now I lay me down to sleep." There's no allegata without probata with him. The more intricate the problem, the brighter that legal brow of his shines forth complete elucidation. When he comes back from France, North Carolina will again be blessed.

MARION BUTLER FOWLER
Hillsboro, N. C.

Age, 21; Height, 5 feet 9 inches
Weight, 150

Durham County Club, President (2);
Ass'tant Manager "Tarheel" (3);
Advertising Manager (4); Y. M. C. A.,
Chairman Educational Department (4);
Secretary (4); Class Treasurer (2);
Treasurer North Carolina Club (2);
Contributing Editor "University Magazine" (4); Student Council (5).

FOWLER is one of the serious minded in our Class. If there is any point in "Domestic Relations" that you are in doubt about, ask him; he'll help you. His life has been the quiet, everyday life of a good man, a good student, and a good citizen. He loves the study of law, and will, we all believe, soon be an authority on the rights of a "femme coverte."

JAMES SPEARS HOWELL
Asheville, N. C.

Glee Club (1, 2), Manager (2);
Secretary Buncombe County Club (2);
Captain Drum Corps (2); Band (2).

The most "enterprising" lawyer that ever came our way, is JIMMIE. There's no end to that fellow. He can plead a case; act as Judge; sell boots, or anything else; train a drum corps; type-write, and teach shorthand; and yodle like a mocking-bird. JIMMIE is living now for Uncle Sam in the Quartermaster's Corps. No matter where, he is busy. The Judge will never tell him, "You slept on your rights."

WILLIAM ELLIS THOMAS, JR.
Rockingham, N. C.

SPENCER THEOPHILUS THORNE
Rocky Mount, N. C.

President Richmond County Club;
Dramatic Club; North Carolina Club;
ΣΧ.

That boy's bright. He knows folks, especially "judges" and "ladies." He knows law, too. He told Judge Allen so, last January; and "sho nuff" he did. TANGLE has that kind of argument that the jury can't get around; and if we get woman suffrage, the jury ladies will simply fall for him. You just can't help from liking TANGLE—he's so darn appealing.

He's in the swim. The legal waters around Rocky Mount are already feeling the mighty stroke of Theophilus. "T" was a great friend of ours at Chapel Hill. He's an ardent advocate of all the good in law books, and says he is out to help strike out all the bad written there. Godspeed, "T."

EDWARD LLEWELLYN TRAVIS, JR.
Halifax, N. C.

That fellow is a genius. He can get away with more good stuff on short notice, on Class, than anybody. The Profs. have a time trying to blind Ed. "Beware of you lean Ed; he thinks too much." He'll make a big lawyer. Corporations are Ed's specialty. He can jumble them up, and straighten them out, as easy as a picture puzzle for a baby, without even having the "specific intent."

1918 YACKETY YACK

ARBORETUM

WALTER OTTS ALLEN
Hendersonville, N. C.

Age, 21; Height, 6 feet 1 inch
Weight, 150

Ex-President Pharmaceutical Society;
Henderson County Club.

WALTER, better known as SQUIGE, is a valuable gift to us from the Class of 'Sixteen. He has a very quick mind, which enabled him to rank high in his Classes, and to pass the State Board with a high mark. Also he has a very amiable disposition, which is proved by the fact that he stole the heart of our only Co-Ed. He is an optimist in the full sense of the word, and we predict for him a great future (if he will locate in a town where there are none of the fair sex).

MINERVA BINGHAM
Rutherfordwood, N. C.

Height, 5 feet 5 inches; Weight, 143

MISS BINGHAM is the first Co-Ed to have graduated from the Pharmacy Department. She has proved herself a brilliant student, and spends all her time with her books and in the laboratory. She is one of the few lady pharmacists, and we are proud of the fact that she hails from "Carolina." (For further particulars, see Jeff Mull.)

GUY ELLIOTT BROOKSHIRE
Asheville, N. C.

Age, 22; Height, 5 feet 8 inches
Weight, 120

President of Class; President Pharmaceutical Society; Student Council; Greater Council; Assistant in Pharmacy Laboratory; KΨ.

BROOK, as he is known by all his friends, hails to the University from Buncombe County, and is an all-round student. Upon the campus, he has many friends, who admire his energetic ability and calm dignity. By the possession of a wonderful talent for remembering pharmaceutical formulae, he was successful before the State Board of Examiners in November. During his two years at the University, BROOK has won many honors, and we know that a rapid rise into the realms of success awaits him, whether serving Uncle Sam or behind the prescription counter.

RANSOM FRED CARSWELL
Morganton, N. C.

Age 22

FRED left us early in the term, and denied us the pleasure of having his genial disposition among us in June; but he has left behind him many good friends, who will always remember his numerous good qualities.

JESSE TURLINGTON MORGAN
Benson, N. C.

Age, 22; Height, 5 feet 10 inches
Weight, 140

Vice-President Class; Member
Greater Council; Johnson County Club;
Ex-President Pharmaceutical Society;
KΨ.

JESSE is recognized thru the whole Department as the Class leader. He is a very conscientious student, and is never so happy as when preparing for an exam. He has business with his books sixteen hours out of a day, dreams about them four hours, and sleeps the remaining four. In making an analysis of his character, we find but one fault—he keeps the rest of us working too hard to keep up.

JACOB ERNEST MULL
Morganton, N. C.

Age, 21; Height, 5 feet 7 inches
Weight, 135

JEFF is one of the most popular boys in the Class. He never lets his work interfere with pleasure; nevertheless, he gets along with his studies fine. You can always find him at Patterson's Drug Store, or working in Chemistry Lab. His classmates wish him a long and successful career.

ALBERTO SOLER
Santiago, Cuba

Age, 26; Height, 5 feet 6 inches; Weight, 133

Member Pharmaceutical Society

ALBERT is a student of rare ability. He takes everything and everybody seriously, and lets everybody know that he is here for business. Altho he came to America, with no knowledge of English, three years ago, he has never "flunked" a quiz, and is always there with his part when any work is to be done. He is a graduate from "Havana Sugar School," and is a talented chemist. He makes friends with all who know him, and is sure to succeed.

THE western trip of the Musical Clubs was declared a huge success by all of the members. The Clubs played in Spartanburg, Asheville, Charlotte, Salisbury, Winston-Salem, and Greensboro. The boys were received everywhere with great hospitality. Most of the audiences were large, and all were very appreciative. This year's program was composed almost entirely of popular music, contrary to the usual custom of rendering for the most part classical music. This new type of program appealed very strongly to the audiences. The Mandolin Club, the Hawaiian Trio, the yodeling by Howell, made the biggest hits. After the concerts, the Clubs enjoyed delightful dances and receptions.

MILITARY TRAINING AT THE UNIVERSITY

IT IS not the nature of the North Carolinian to remain neutral when a "first-class scrap" is in progress nearby. When his financial interests are also involved, and when his sympathies are aroused by the brutality practiced by one of the belligerents, his blood seethes with a desire to take part in the conflict.

Such was the condition confronting us during the first year of the great European war. From the beginning, our hearts have been with the Entente Allies, tho most of us for a long time agreed as to the wisdom and expediency of national neutrality. A few of us, from the first, more belligerent in nature or more far-sighted than the rest, felt that we should at once throw our swords in the balance. Some could not resist the individual call to duty, and the names of Rockwell and McConnell have been added to the long honor roll of North Carolinians who have died in the cause of Liberty and Right. But conservatism as well as sympathy is deeply ingrained in our character. The bulk of our people, tho hoping for the success of France and Britain, yet felt that we as a people lacked sufficient cause for participation. Our native love of peace, and our inherent confidence in the goodness of human kind, blinded us to the far-reaching German ambition for world domination, and to the gross brutality and conscienceless treachery of the Teuton rulers.

Our long immunity from foreign attack, and our own absence of desire for conquest, prevented our recognition of the danger from abroad, and obscured our appreciation of our own military weakness. But our eyes were gradually opened by the cumulative evidence of three years. The invasion of Belgium, the continued oppression of conquered territory, the deliberate devastation of farm and city, the persistent cruelty to prisoners and to civilians and, above all, the inhuman work of the submarine, steadily aroused our overwhelming indignation; and step by step came the realization of our own helplessness in case of war.

The academic atmosphere promotes an intense love of individual freedom, an acute sympathy for the oppressed, and a ready indignation against an oppressor. But it also creates an impatience of restraint and discipline. The college man is prompt to volunteer when war is on, but slow to recognize the necessity for preparation before the event. When the suggestion was made, in the fall of nineteen-fifteen, that a course in military training be introduced in the University of North Carolina, it met with little favor among either Faculty or students. War was not regarded as imminent, and in our ignorance we failed to realize the importance of making ready for its coming.

A few months later, a chapter of the National Security League was organized, thru the efforts of Mr. J. M. Booker; but only four or five of the Faculty and a few dozen of the students were interested. The organization languished and died, but it had prepared the ground for a further growth. A second attempt, made in the spring of nineteen-sixteen, to introduce military training in the University, met a better response; but real enthusiasm was still lacking, except among a small group who were rated as alarmists and cranks. The course was not adopted, but the changing attitude was evidenced by the fact that during the following summer three Faculty members and twelve students attended the Civilian Training Camps at Plattsburg and Fort Oglethorpe. Mr. Draper, of Charlotte, N. C., gave five hundred dollars, and Mr. Frothingham, of Worcester, Mass., gave one hundred dollars, toward defraying the expenses of students attending this Camp.

JAMES VIVIAN WHITFIELD
Instructor in Military Science

FIRST ATTEMPTS—SPRING, 1917

1918 YACKETY YACK

This period may be regarded as the starting point of active interest in our military preparation. Every one of the men attending these Camps returned full of enthusiasm, and strongly in favor of a Training Course in the University. This spirit grew steadily, and by January, 1917, nearly one hundred of the students, and ten members of the Faculty, had made their plans to attend one of the Government Camps in the following summer. Coincidentally, the sentiment for a University Department of Military Science gained momentum, and seemed destined to succeed.

At this moment the sudden severance of diplomatic relations with Germany swept away all remaining opposition. Without a dissenting vote, and with scarcely a dissenting voice, the Faculty adopted a resolution recommending the institution of this Department. At the same time, under the stimulating influence of Coach T. J. Campbell, the University Battalion was formed. A meeting of those expecting to attend the Civilian Camps was held. In half an hour more than a hundred men had agreed to drill for an hour each night. Three days later, this number exceeded five hundred. Meanwhile, President Graham had applied to the War Department for an instructor, and for the necessary equipment for a Reserve Officers' Training Corps. Unfortunately, with war imminent, the relatively small military establishment of the United States could not spare to us an instructor, nor even the modest amount of equipment we required. Nevertheless, without uniforms, and without rifles, and merely under the tutelage of students and Faculty members who had had some scant experience at Plattsburg or at preparatory schools, the drill was enthusiastically begun. This work attracted the attention of Mr. R. W. Glenn, of Greensboro, the State Secretary of the Military Training Camps Association. Thru his good offices, Mr. Julius

MESSRS. HICKERSON
AND BULLITT

Cone, of Greensboro, loaned to us, and afterward gave us, one hundred and eighty Civil War carbines. Tho obsolete as offensive weapons, they have served an indispensable purpose for our drill. Lieutenant (now Captain) McLendon, of the North Carolina National Guard, and Captain (now Colonel) Broadhurst, of the Regular Army, both alumni of the University, made frequent visits to the campus during the spring, and rendered valuable service by their advice and encouragement. In the latter part of the session, the battalion was badly shattered by the enlistment of many of its members in the army, and by the enrollment of more than one hundred others in the first Officers' Training Camp at Fort Oglethorpe. But those who remained continued the work until the close of the session.

In spite of President Graham's earnest efforts, it was impossible to secure from the United States Government either an officer as instructor, or equipment for the proposed work of the present session. But in the late summer his labors were amply rewarded by his securing from the Canadian Government the services of Capt. J. Stuart Allen, of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry. As the head of the Department of Military Science, he has maintained at a high level the intense enthusiasm which our students felt for this preparation for patriotic service. His high record as an officer in the British Expeditionary forces, his boundless energy, and his magnetic personality, have made him an ideal leader in initiating this course, and have endeared him personally to all in the University community. His assistants have been Mr. Jonathan Leonard, who formerly held a responsible position on the teaching staff of the Harvard Reserve Officers' Training Corps, and Mr. J. V. Whitfield, (U. N. C., 1915), who for the past two years has been Commandant at Horner Military School.

The total number of students registered in the University for the fall term was 820. Of these, 565 (sixty-eight per cent.) have been taking this course, devoting twelve hours a week to the work. If we eliminate from our count the twenty-five women students, and about seventy-five men whose laboratory hours in medicine, chemistry, etc., conflicted with the drill hours, and about twenty whom the college physician disqualified for physical reasons, we have in training about eighty per cent. of those who could by any reasonable possibility take the course.

Because of the immediate national emergency, the whole University schedule of classes has been so modified as to make possible the devotion of twelve daylight hours a week to this work. Obviously this arrangement can not be permanent, but plans are now being formulated by which a Reserve Officers' course, based upon the recommendations of the War Department, may be incorporated in the regular curriculum. The details are not yet perfected, but it is purposed to place the Military Department upon the same basis as other Departments in the University.

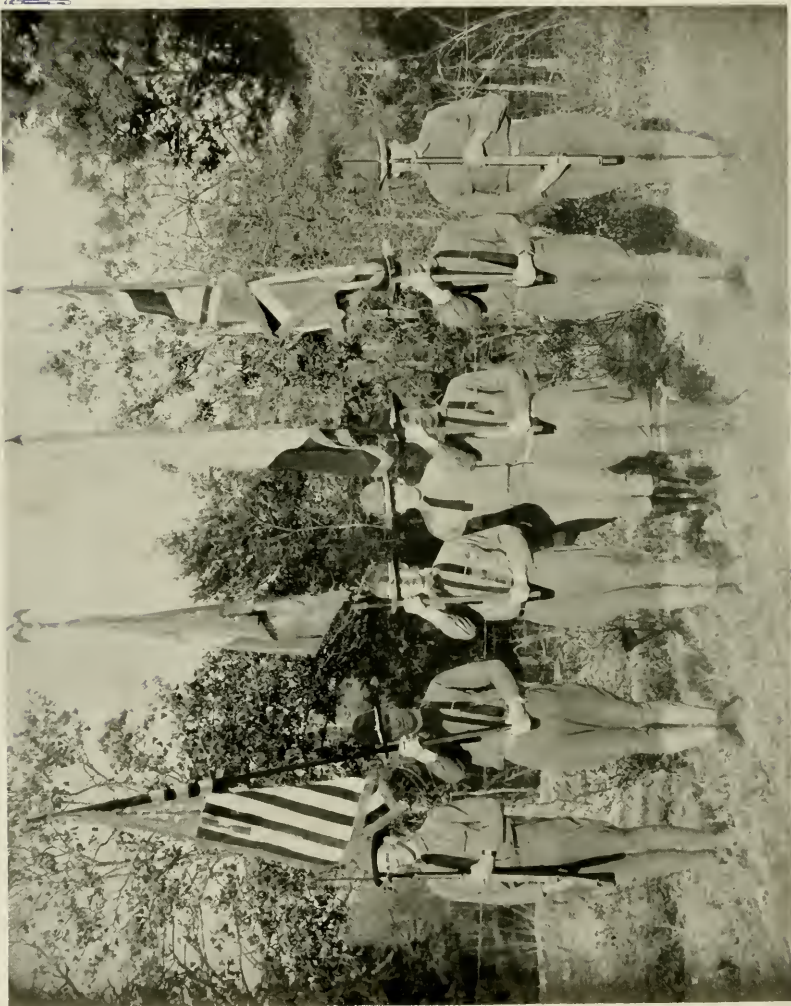

An interesting experiment will be tried during the summer of nineteen-eighteen. Under the auspices of the University, a six-weeks' course of intensive military training will be given by Captain Allen, assisted by Mr. W. A. Blount and Mr. Bingham McKee. Colonel Bingham, of Asheville, has generously offered the use of his school (barracks, tents, and all other equipment) for this purpose. The course will be open not only to regular college students, but also to all boys and young men, from sixteen to twenty years of age. No University credit will be given, but the opportunity is offered for a delightful summer outing combined with a very valuable experience.

FOOTBALL

FOR the first time, probably, in the history of the sport, the University abandoned Varsity football, and gave the field over to the rigid military system which was ushered in last fall.

"On to Richmond" found a rival in "On to Raleigh," where a competitive drill had been planned for with A. and E. College.

After a slight delay, a call was issued for candidates for the First-Year Reserve squad. Many Freshmen and First-Year men reported to Coach Peacock, who soon mapped out a schedule of practice that did not conflict with drill. Rigorous training began in earnest, and resulted in the development of a firm, efficient team. Bell, Clarvoe, Blount, Barden of the Nineteen-Sixteen Varsity team, Spough, and Spruill assisted in the coaching. Scales was elected captain.

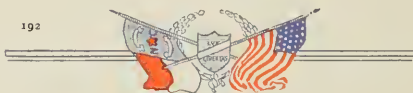

The season opened with Davidson Scrubs, the First-Year men winning, 6 to 2. Lack of drive seemed to be the characteristic fault of the team.

In the final game with the Virginia Freshmen, the Reserves played hard from the start. The outstanding feature of the game was a seventy-yard run by Captain Scales, who played a stellar game for Carolina. Fearrington, Lowe, Simms, and Sherrod came in for their share of the glory, for each played a consistent game on the defensive.

The First Reserve team was composed of good material, which will no doubt figure in the Varsity teams after the war.

WITH only a few letter men back, and the one-year rule in operation for the first time, the nineteen-seventeen baseball season opened with some uncertainty. But the uncertainty was soon dispelled. Between sixty and seventy candidates reported for practice. Many men who had never been out before, then realized that the team was to be made up of the upper-classmen instead of the type of players who came for the season and lost interest in the College after the schedule was finished.

Coaches "Bun" Hearn and Campbell began working with the squad early in the year, and found good Varsity material present. "Rudy" Barnes, Captain, and Coach Hearn began to select the team in February, and practically determined the line-up by March the first.

Beginning with a 4-3 victory over Bingham, Mebane, the team continued a fast and sure game thruout the season, winning eleven of the seventeen games played—among the games won being one with Virginia. The schedule included some of the strongest teams in the South and East.

POWELL, Captain-Elect

CAPTAIN BARNES

YOUNCE

The games with Yale, Washington and Lee, and Virginia were clever exhibitions of scientific baseball. Probably the game with the University of Virginia was the most thrilling contest of the season.

"Before one of the largest crowds ever witnessing a game in Greensboro, Carolina took a ten-inning affair from Virginia, by the score of 3 to 2." And then The Tarheel continues: "The score fails to show how the Tarheels defeated the Virginians. . . . Too much credit can not be given to Pitcher 'Nemo' Coleman and Pinch Hitter Younce, for it was in the ninth inning that Younce sent Stewart across the plate on his timely hit. Coleman replaced Powell, who had pitched a star game for nine innings, allowing only five hits, and giving only one base on balls. Nemo held the Virginians at bay for the rest of the game. The game was won in the tenth, when Jennette rapped out a two-bagger to left, his fourth hit of the day, and took third on Feinster's grounder to second. Coleman drove a clean single over second base, and Jennette scored. The Virginians were retired in one, two, three order in the last half of the tenth."

1918 YACKETY YACK

The Davidson game at Charlotte was another fine exhibition of baseball, featured by good pitching and neat fielding.

"Carolina got her good work in at the start, pounding out five of her six hits in the first inning. After two men had journeyed back to the bench by the 'whiff' route, Coleman rapped sharply to right for a base, stole second, and went home on Stewart's hot grounder to center.

"Davidson failed to place a man on base until the fifth inning. . . . Black's stab of Jennette's terrible drive in the first, with bases full and two outs, was Davidson's feature." In the seventh, Davidson threatened to score, but the fast work of Herty, Feimster, and Jennette, in the infield, cleared the bases, leaving the score 1 to 0 in favor of the Tarheels.

The Wofford game was also played in fine style, lasting only an hour and thirty minutes. Kinlaw pitched a strong game, winning 3 to 0. "Rudy's usual clout over the left field fence came in the fourth inning."

A summary of the season shows good individual work in addition to the machine-like drive of the team as a whole.

BASKET-BALL

THE season 1917-18 opened up with the brightest prospects for Carolina in many years. Altho Captain Tennent was the only letter man to report for practise, when the call was made early in the fall, a number of promising new men and scrubs from the last year's squad were in evidence.

Gwynn, Cuthbertson, Hodges, Ravenel, Perry, and Lynch were ready to continue their training again under Coach Peacock. Carmichael, Durham High; Liipfert, Winston-Salem; and Morris, Guilford College, were some of the new candidates for the team.

Captain Tennent took charge of the squad during the early fall practise, and applied Coach Peacock's methods, eliminating as far as possible the high-school "stuff" evident in the new players.

The team soon crystalized with Liipfert at center, Lynch and Perry, forwards, and Tennent and Cuthbertson, guards. Two practise games were played with the Durham Y. M. C. A. quintet, and the Varsity easily won, by superior team work—63-21, and 42-35.

Coach Peacock took over the team after Christmas, and began a rigorous practise. Perry left College, and Carmichael took his place at forward. Shortly after this change, the team met Georgia, one of the best teams in the South, and won 36-27, in the prettiest game ever played at the University.

After the Georgia game there was a slump, and the team won several games by a mere margin. After the Virginia trip, which was somewhat disastrous—Carolina losing three games—the team returned with a fight unequalled before, and swept Davidson, Guilford, and South Carolina from the floor.

Carolina won nine of her twelve games. Lynch led the team with sixty-four field and twenty-nine foul goals, making 157 points. Carmichael followed with fifty-four field and one foul goal, netting 109 points; Liipfert at center scored thirty-nine field and two foul goals, crediting him with eighty points. Tennent got thirty-two field goals, or sixty-four points; and Cuthbertson scored eleven goals, or twenty-two points. Substitute players scored fifteen goals, or thirty points.

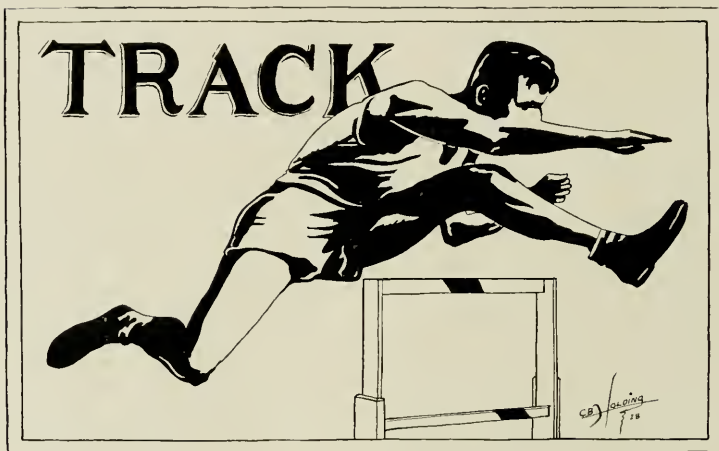

Carolina forwards scored 135 goals, while the forwards of all opposing teams scored seventy-five. Tennent and Cuthbertson secured forty-three goals, to the thirteen of all opposing guards.

The real success of the team can not be determined by facts and figures. The passing game was followed closely. Individual starrng was unknown, but the whole team worked together as an effective fighting unit. Lynch played close to the goal, while Carmichael ran the floor. Tennent played a running guard, leaving Cuthbertson to cover the entire territory at times. Liipfert was the hardest worker on the team, running the floor during every minute of play.

The season's success: the fast, clean, aggressive style of playing; and the enthusiasm of the players was due entirely to Coach Howell Peacock. Carolina has never had a more efficient coach, a cleaner and more sportsmanlike leader than Peacock.

Lynch, Liipfert, Carmichael, and Cuthbertson were awarded letters, and Tennent a star.

TRACK 1916-17

CAPTAIN FARTHING began plans for the track season shortly after returning to College. In the fall, Carolina won events in various track meets, and seemed to be starting on a really exceptional year; for, while "Bill" Folger was dashing across Virginia's goal line for a touchdown that brought the Tarheels victory, L. M. Upchurch, star long-distance runner, was adding another victory to his long list of successes by winning the individual trophy cup for the five-mile run at Raleigh. He made the run in twenty-six minutes and thirty seconds. Totten and Crissman also represented the University in this meet.

In the Annual State Intercollegiate Cross Country Run, held at A. and E. College in November, Carolina representatives won the meet, Upchurch securing first place in the five-mile run, with a record of twenty-five minutes. A. and E. took second place; Davidson, third; and Wake Forest, fourth.

With the first warm days of spring, one of the largest number of track aspirants on record began to kick up the cinders. Dr. Kent Brown was secured as Coach. An attractive schedu'e, including meets with Washington and Lee, Virginia, and different colleges of the State, was under way, and everything pointed toward an eventful track season. But just then came the call for men at Oglethorpe. Over half of the Senior Class responded. Webb, Rand, and Upchurch were among those who left.

"Four hundred Carolina men report for military training," a headline appearing in The Tarheel spells the story. All athletics suffered; but Track especially. The schedule was entirely abandoned, and the numerous candidates chose the more novel activity of military drill. Upchurch and Mims were awarded letters, and Gordon Crowell a manager's monogram.

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

THE Y. M. C. A. is an inter-denominational working union of college men, who believe that the free, the wholesome, and the complete life is the normal ideal of the normal university man, and who believe that in Christ is found the inspiration and strength to achieve that ideal. The spirit that has dominated the Association during the past collegiate year can best be shown by a brief résumé of its activities. Its interests have ranged from "Rebuilding Civilization" to the return of a lost raincoat to its owner; from a series of meetings on social service by Dr. Harry Ward to the exchange of second-hand books; from the study of the missionary fields of Asia to the instruction of the negroes of Chapel Hill.

The Y. M. C. A. has served. There is no part of college life nor of community life that has not felt its influence. Even before reaching the Hill, the Freshman was greeted by a Y. M. C. A. handbook. When he arrived at University station, he was met by men who were sent out by the Y. M. C. A. for that purpose. And all during the year the Association has manifested the same keen interest in its new men.

Thru the Lost and Found Bureau, the Self-Help Department, and the Second-Hand Book Exchange, the Y. M. C. A. has served the students: thru the weekly religious meetings, it has proved an opportunity for knowing college life and the temptations of college life, higher standards and ideals, and principles that should guide a man in the choice of a life work; thru the Lyceum Department, the Y. M. C. A. has offered clean and wholesome amusements; thru the Rural, the Community, and the Industrial Departments, the Association has given to the students the opportunity to serve—to go out into the highways and hedges, to carry there the University spirit.

In short, the Y. M. C. A. during the past year has been up to University standard.

THE ARBORETUM IN FALL

NOW THAT IT'S ALL OVER

IN Charlotte there is a printing press, and the pressman is calling for copy. The stage is all set for making the "Nineteen-Eighteen YACKETY-YACK" a reality.

During the excitement and rush, we want to take time to give due thanks to all who have helped to make the book. It is to them that any success that the book may attain is to be attributed.

We wish to thank Mr. J. J. Sher, of the Bureau of Engraving, for his innumerable ideas, suggestions, and criticisms. It is to him that our heartiest thanks are due. We also wish to thank Mr. B. R. Cates and the Observer Printing House for the scrupulous care given to every detail of the printing work. Both the Bureau of Engraving and the Observer Printing House deserve great praise.

The untiring efforts of the White Studio, in providing the necessary pictures, groups, etc., will always be remembered and appreciated. We also wish to thank Mr. Robert Foister for his aid in the military photographs. We thank them both for their patience.

Messrs. Bingham McKee, '18, Robert H. Frazier, '19, Allen Martin, '20, and C. B. Holding, '18, deserve the highest praise and commendation for the assistance rendered in the art work of the book. They were approached in a time of need, and they responded beautifully.

Finally, it is our pleasure to thank the members of the Nineteen-Eighteen YACKETY-YACK Board, whose energy and efforts produced this book. It is impossible to give due thanks to each for his individual contributions; but we want especially to mention Mr. John S. Terry, who was not only a most active Board member, but to whose timely efforts the publication has been made possible. Every member of the Board "did his bit," and did it cheerfully.

We have hopes. We hope that each purchaser will like the YACKETY-YACK, and that all bills will be paid; the Managers, so that they will be able to leave the University with a clean financial record. We also hope that we will be able, after so much excitement, to again adjust ourselves to the University's routine, and proceed to make up the collegiate work that has been missed. But the past year has also been one of the most pleasant associations. We do not regret it.

THE Advertisers in this book are the concerns who are interested in the welfare of the University, enjoy the patronage of the students and appreciate it, or desire the patronage of the students.

The student publications rely upon the advertisers to a large extent for their success. Therefore, it is the duty of the students to patronize the advertisers of this book wherever possible.

We Are Looking for a Man—

A man with real initiative and force; a man with the gift of continuance; a man not too optimistic, or too easily discouraged—not too overjoyed by success, or too downhearted by a little hard luck; a man who does not talk much when he succeeds, and none at all when he fails—who appreciates that making good once is only his affidavit that he will continue to make good; a man who is interested beyond the day's job and the week's payroll; a real human fellow—one who can talk with and interest other fellows equally human; a man who would be honest with himself and equally honest with others.

A man under twenty-five or a man fifty might fill the requirements. It's not so much a matter of age, as of capability and a natural-born desire to work.

To such a man, who is interested in an opportunity to earn up to the full limit of his capacity, is offered a permanent position, with the backing and full support of a corporation with three millions of assets—a contract covering a period of years, with accumulative profits.

A connection with the right man should prove mutually profitable.

WE PAY THE POSTAGE

You have, no doubt, made the exposures correctly, but the success of the finished picture depends on the experience and care of the person doing the finishing, as well as the equipment and quality of materials used for developing films. We use large stone tanks, exactly like those used by the Eastman Kodak Company in their finishing department. This insures the very best results, and entirely eliminates under- and over-development.

PHARMACY

In the present National crisis, a continuous supply of adequately trained medical officers is absolutely essential for the maintenance of armed forces in the field. It is, therefore, the patriotic duty of all college students intending to study medicine to remain under instruction until the country can avail itself of their trained services. All medical students should, therefore, in the interest of National safety continue their work until graduation.

Bureau.. Supremacy Commands Attention!

LOOK back over the past years and ask yourself what other Engraving Institution, specializing in college annuals, has wielded so wide an Influence over the College Annual Field?

Ask yourself if College and University Annuals are not better today because of BUREAU PROGRESSIVENESS and BUREAU INITIATIVE?

You know that the BUREAU OF ENGRAVING, Inc. inaugurated the system of Closer Co-operation with college annual boards in planning and constructing books from cover to cover.

Our marked progress in this field commands attention. Our establishment is one of the largest of its kind in this country. Our Modern Art Department of noted Commercial Art Experts is developing Artistic Features that are making "Bureau" Annuals Famous for Originality and Beauty.

And again, the help of our experienced College Annual Department is of invaluable aid. Our up-to-the-minute system, which we give you, and our Instructive Books will surely lighten your Burden.

A proposition from the Natural Leaders in the College Annual Engraving field from an organization of over 150 people, founded over 17 years ago, and enjoying the Confidence and Good Will of the foremost Universities of this country, is certainly worth your while.

Is not the BUREAU OF ENGRAVING, Inc., Deserving of the Opportunity of showing what it can do for - YOU?
